Saint Deiniol's Cathedral
in Bangor

Welcome to Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in Bangor.

You stand now where Deiniol stood almost a millennium and a half ago.

Here, in the year 525, he gathered around him a community of faith, hope and love, and raised around it a hazel fence – the original bangor – for shelter and sanctuary.

Our prayer is that you, too, will be embraced here by the same faith, hope and love that we proclaim and live by today.

At this Eucharist...

At this Eucharist we will meet Christ in bread and wine, which become for us his Body and his Blood.

1 As we gather, we will prepare ourselves to meet Christ by confessing our sins – the ways in which we have grieved God in our lives – and receive absolution, the knowledge of God's forgiveness.

2 We then listen to readings from the Bible, where we find guidance, challenge, comfort and good news from God. We respond by proclaiming our faith in the Holy Trinity and offering to God our prayer for all in need.

3 At the heart of our worship today, we will take bread and wine, we will ask for God's transfiguring blessing upon them, we break the bread, and – as the broken, mended Body of Christ that we ourselves are – we will make our Communion.

4 Our worship ends with the assurance of God's blessing, sustaining us as we depart.

No matter how long ago you last did so, you are welcome to make your Communion with us here today. If you would like to make your Communion for the first time, or to be Baptised, please speak to a member of the Cathedral team.

Faith, hope and love are here offered for everybody.

Worshipping with us today

This booklet contains everything said and sung during our worship today. You are invited to take the booklet away with you, to reflect in your own time on the holy words it contains. However, worship is not primarily something that we read or observe – it is an activity, in which we all participate, alongside those who are gathered with us and, we believe, alongside the whole company of heaven. Be sure, therefore, to look up; to notice colour, light, sound, movement and beauty; to raise up your voice; to take your full part; to be formed and transformed.

During our worship, we say and sing together the text in bold type. Translations into English are provided from Welsh and other languages. We may make a sign of the Cross at times when the words are marked with ✠. Other directions (rubrics) are offered in green type; if you find it more comfortable to sit rather than stand or kneel, please do so.

Accessibility

A hearing loop is in use – please set hearing aids to the T setting.

Large print copies of this booklet are available from the stewards.

If you have need of a gluten-free wafer (conforming to the canonical requirement for 20 parts gluten per million), please speak to a steward.

Lavatories are located at the east end of the Cathedral, through the door to the left of the Quire screen.

If we need to evacuate the Cathedral in an emergency, please remain seated and follow the directions of the stewards.

Children and young families

Activities and crafts take place during the Choral Holy Eucharist every Sunday in the Lady Chapel, for any children up to the age of 11. The crafts and activities are varied, with at least one relating to the theme of the Eucharist itself. This space will be staffed by responsible adults, and children over the age of 5 will be able to come and go freely. Children will remain the responsibility of their parents or guardians at all times. Children who are aged 4 and under should, in the first instance, be accompanied by a parent or guardian unless a prior arrangement with those on duty on the day has been made.

Hymn

Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine,
and visit it with thine own ardour glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear,
and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming; and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight, and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity mine outward vesture be,
and lowliness become mine inner clothing:
true lowliness of heart,
which takes the humbler part,
and o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace, till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

Greeting

✠ In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

"All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability."

Confession

As we gather to celebrate this Holy Eucharist to the glory of God, we prepare ourselves by confessing our sins, we who need God's aching, mending grace to make us whole;

we who need God's exposing, convicting love to purify our injustice;

we who need God's living, liberating presence to dwell in us and set us free.

Let us pray together.

Heavenly Father,
we have sinned in thought, word and deed,
and have failed to do what we ought to have done.

We are sorry and truly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ who died for us, forgive us all that is past and lead us in his way to walk as children of light.

Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, ✠ forgive you and set you free from sin,
and keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

Collect

Let us pray.

God, who as at this time did teach the hearts of your faithful people, by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in such holy comfort; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Ascended Saviour.

Amen.

Word

Psalmody

You have gone up on high and led captivity captive; you have received gifts even from your enemies, that the Holy One might dwell among them.

Blest are you, O God, day by day, the God of our salvation, who bears our burdens.

Send forth your strength, O God; establish, O God, what you have wrought for us.

Sing to God, O nations of the earth; sing praises to the Holy One,

Who rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens, who sends forth a voice, a mighty voice.

Ascribe power to God, whose majesty is over Israel, whose strength is in the skies.

How wonderful is God in the holy places; the God of Israel giving strength and power to the people: blessed be God!

Psalm 68:18-19, 28, 33-36

Music

Robert Cooke (1768-1814)

Reading

A reading from the Acts of the Holy Apostles.

Now: When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs – in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power."

Hear the word of life to the world.

Thanks be to God.

Acts 2:1-11

The Paschal Candle is re-lit

We stand, turning to face the Book of the Gospels in the Nave

Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Y Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. R Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Listen to the Holy Gospel according to ✠ Saint John.

Glory to you, O Christ.

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them." Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "How is it that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?" Jesus answered him, "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me. I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid."

This is the Gospel of our Saviour.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Hymn

Sing to him in whom creation found its shape and origin; Spirit, moving on the waters, troubled by the God within;
source of breath to all things breathing, life in whom all lives begin.

Sing to God, the close companion of our inmost thoughts and ways;
who, in showing us his wonders, is himself the power to gaze;
and his will, to those who listen,
by a still small voice conveys.

Holy people, priests and prophets, caught his accents, spoke his word;
his the truth behind the wisdoms which as yet know not our Lord;
he the love of God eternal, which in Christ was seen and heard.

Tell of how the ascended Jesus armed a people for his own;
how a hundred men and women turned the known world upside down to its dark and furthest corners by the Wind of Whitsun blown.

Pray we then, O Lord the Spirit, on our lives descend in might;
let thy flame break out within us,
fire our hearts and clear our sight, till, white-hot in thy possession,
we, too, set the world alight.

Offertory

We bring to this place the bread that sustains us.

It will become for us the bread of life.

We bring to this place the wine that mellows us.

It will become for us the lifeblood of the world.

Eucharistic Prayer

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, it is our duty and our joy at all times and in all places to give you thanks, holy Father, all-powerful and everliving God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Who ascended to his heavenly throne at your right hand and through whom you pour out the Holy Spirit upon your people: the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and true godliness and of the fear of the Lord. We celebrate the mission of your Church when in many languages the Holy Spirit found one voice to proclaim one faith.

And so with the hosts of angels and all the company of heaven we proclaim the glory of your name and join in their unending hymn of praise:

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory: Glory be to thee, O Lord most High. Amen.

✠ Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Music

Short Communion Service, Adrian Batten (c.1591-c.1637)

We remain standing

All praise and thanks to you, true and living God, Creator of all things, Giver of life. You formed us in your own image; but we have marred that image and fall short of your glory. We give you thanks that you sent your Son to share our life; you gave him up to death that the world might be saved, and you raised him from the dead that we might live in him and he in us.

Sanctify with your Spirit this bread and wine, your gifts to us, that they may be for us the body and blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you: do this in remembrance of me. ✠

In the same way after supper he took the cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, Drink from this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins: do this as often as you drink it in remembrance of me. ✠

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come in glory.

As he has commanded us, Father, we remember Jesus Christ, your Son. Proclaiming his victorious death, rejoicing in his resurrection and waiting for him to come in glory we bring to you this bread, this cup. Accept our sacrifice of thanks and praise.

Restore and revive your people, renew us and all for whom we pray with your grace and heavenly ✠ blessing, and at the last receive us with all your saints into that unending joy promised by your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, for ever and ever.

✠ Amen.

We remain standing

Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, we boldly pray:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Peace

Your risen body in our midst, known in the breaking of bread; your glorious wounds, whence blood flowed, the marks of your love; your words to us of peace stronger than death.

The Peace of the Living God be always with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

We share a sign of Peace.

We share a sign of Peace; then we sit or kneel

Breaking

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

Music

Short Communion Service, Adrian Batten (c.1591-c.1637)

Communion

✠ Alleluia. Christ our passover is sacrificed for us.

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

We make our Communion, following the directions of the Stewards, receiving the Sacramental Host and, if we wish, the Precious Blood

Motet

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, and lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art, who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light the dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face with the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far from foes, give peace at home:
where thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son, and thee, of both, to be but One,
that through the ages all along,
this may be our endless song:
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Words

Rabanus Marus (c.780-856)

Paraphrase

John Cosin (1594-1672)

Music

Thomas Attwood (1765-1838)

After all have made their Communion, we stand to sing the hymn

O thou who camest from above the fire celestial to impart, kindle a flame of sacred love on the mean altar of my heart!

There let it for thy glory burn with inextinguishable blaze, and trembling to its source return in humble prayer and fervent praise.

Jesus, confirm my heart's desire to work, and speak, and think for thee;
still let me guard the holy fire,
and still stir up the gift in me.

Ready for all thy perfect will,
my acts of faith and love repeat;
till death thy endless mercies seal,
and make the sacrifice complete.

Blessing the new piano

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Our help is in the name of God.

Maker of heaven and earth.

Let us pray.

Holy God, who through your servant Moses commanded that trumpets be made to be sounded over the sacrifices offered to your name, who through the children of Israel willed that your praise be sung with harps and cymbals, whom choirs of angels join together to offer their lays, and whom galaxies hymn by the quietude of their celestial movement; that our music in this temple may rise more worthily to your majesty, ✚ bless this piano; may its music offer unto us glimpses of your beauty, and be for us a foretaste of that your heaven where there shall be neither noise nor silence, but the one equal music of your glory; through the one seated with you on the throne of honour, even Jesus Christ our Ascended Saviour.

Amen.

Departing

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

The Spirit of truth lead you into all the truth, give you grace to witness that Jesus Christ is Saviour, and to proclaim the mighty word and works of God; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.

Let us go forth in peace. Alleluia. Alleluia.

In the Name of Christ. Alleluia. Alleluia.

We remain standing until the ministers have departed; we then sit or depart

Notices

Vivat Regina!

Saturday 11 June at 7.30pm

The Cathedral Choir presents a concert featuring “royal” works by Handel, Parry, Walton and Mathias. Those present at the Evensong in Thansgiving for the Jubilee this past Thursday will have had a foretaste of the excellent quality of the music to be performed. There are full details on page 45 of Buchedd Bangor, and tickets are available on the door (adults £10; concessions £5; children free).

My Place

Saturday 18 June at 7.30pm

“My Place” is a dramatic production by Riding Lights Theatre Company that explores the journeys of four young people with no place to call home. Bounced between social workers and different homes, defined by immigration documents and court reports, mistrusted and mistreated, can they find somewhere to be themselves? The remarkable journeys of these lively, resourceful children unfold through story and song, asking us to consider what place we might have in their lives. Tickets are available online at ridinglights.org/my-place/ or from Naomi for £10.

New piano

We were fortunate recently to be able to purchase a new piano at a discounted price. Made by Bechstein in 1878 and restored over the past few weeks by the local company, Pianos Company, it offers us a high quality instrument for our recitals, worship and wider musical events. The piano will be blessed at the end of the service today.

Ordination service

Saturday 25 June at 11am

The annual diocesan ordination service takes place at the Cathedral at the end of the month, and everyone is warmly invited to join Helen Franklin and Selwyn Griffiths to celebrate a new chapter in their ministry.

Clas on Zoom

Monday 6 June at 6.30pm

The furniture designer of international standing, Luke Hughes, who is working on new Nave furniture for the Cathedral, joins us to reflect on his craft and the talk about plans at the Cathedral.

Coffee-break Recitals

Thursdays

11.15am for 45 minutes

Tea, coffee and cake from 10.45am

9 June | Francesca Hook | Soprano

Francesca is currently an MA in Music and Education student at Bangor University and has sung with the Cathedral Choir. Francesca will present a recital of works from the stage and screen.

16 June | Alice Caldwell | Baroque Recorder

Alice Caldwell is one of the Choral Scholars at the Cathedral. In her recital, she will be performing a wide range of Baroque recorder pieces by composers including Handel, Telemann and Sammartini.

Safeguarding

Safeguarding children and adults at risk is vital, and we are committed to fostering an environment where everyone is able to worship and participate in the life of Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in safety. If you have any concerns, please raise them immediately with a member of the Cathedral team.

Sustainability and permissions

We use 100% recycled, low carbon dioxide paper.

Some of our services are streamed on Facebook from a camera at the east end of the Nave facing east, and the recording made available thereafter on the Cathedral's Facebook page. An official photographer may be on duty. Your attendance constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording or broadcast. If you do not wish a photograph of you or a child in your care to be used by the Cathedral, please speak to a member of the Cathedral team.
