

Choral Holy Eucharist
The Seventh Sunday after Trinity
23 July 2023 at 11am

Cadeirlan
Deiniol Sant
ym Mangor

Saint Deiniol's Cathedral
in Bangor

Welcome to Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in Bangor.

You stand now where Deiniol stood almost a millennium and a half ago.

Here, in the year 525, he gathered around him a community of faith, hope and love, and raised around it a hazel fence – the original bangor – for shelter and sanctuary.

Our prayer is that you,
too, will be embraced here by the same faith, hope and love that we proclaim and live by today.

At this Eucharist...

At this Eucharist we will meet Christ in bread and wine, which become for us his Body and his Blood.

1 As we gather, we will prepare ourselves to meet Christ by confessing our sins – the ways in which we have grieved God in our lives – and receive absolution, the knowledge of God's forgiveness.

2 We then listen to readings from the Bible, where we find guidance, challenge, comfort and good news from God. We respond by proclaiming our faith in the Holy Trinity and offering to God our prayer for all in need.

3 At the heart of our worship today, we will take bread and wine, we will ask for God's transfiguring blessing upon them, we break the bread, and – as the broken, mended Body of Christ that we ourselves are – we will make our Communion.

4 Our worship ends with the assurance of God's blessing, sustaining us as we depart.

No matter how long ago you last did so, you are welcome to make your Communion with us here today. If you would like to make your Communion for the first time, or to be Baptised, please speak to a member of the Cathedral team.

Faith, hope and love are here offered for everybody.

Worshipping with us today

This booklet contains everything said and sung during our worship today. You are invited to take the booklet away with you, to reflect in your own time on the holy words it contains. However, worship is not primarily something that we read or observe – it is an activity, in which we all participate, alongside those who are gathered with us and, we believe, alongside the whole company of heaven. Be sure, therefore, to look up; to notice colour, light, sound, movement and beauty; to raise up your voice; to take your full part; to be formed and transformed.

During our worship, we say and sing together the text in bold type. Translations into English are provided from Welsh and other languages. We may make a sign of the Cross at times when the words are marked with ✠. Other directions (rubrics) are offered in red type; if you find it more comfortable to sit rather than stand or kneel, please do so.

Accessibility

A hearing loop is in use – please set hearing aids to the T setting.

Large print copies of this booklet are available from the stewards.

If you have need of a gluten-free wafer (conforming to the canonical requirement for 20 parts gluten per million), please speak to a steward.

Lavatories are located at the east end of the Cathedral, through the door to the left of the Quire screen.

If we need to evacuate the Cathedral in an emergency, please remain seated and follow the directions of the stewards.

Children and young families

Activities and crafts take place during the Choral Holy Eucharist every Sunday in the Lady Chapel, for any children up to the age of 11. The crafts and activities are varied, with at least one relating to the theme of the Eucharist itself. This space will be staffed by responsible adults, and children over the age of 5 will be able to come and go freely. Children will remain the responsibility of their parents or guardians at all times. Children who are aged 4 and under should, in the first instance, be accompanied by a parent or guardian unless a prior arrangement with those on duty on the day has been made.

From the Lectern & Buchedd Bangor

Each week, a From the Lectern email is sent to subscribers with weekly notices and images from the life of the Cathedral and Ministry Area. If you're not already a subscriber, follow the QR code, or visit cadeirlan.churchinwales.org.uk/Darllenfa/

Buchedd Bangor is our regular magazine, offering a mixture of devotional material and practical knowledge about our life together. Pick up a copy of today, or follow the QR code to read online.

Hymn

God of freedom, God of justice, you whose love is strong as death,
you who saw the dark of prison, you who knew the price of faith – touch our world of sad oppression with your Spirit's healing breath.

Rid the earth of torture's terror,
you whose hands were nailed to wood;
hear the cries of pain and protest, you who shed the tears and blood – move in us the power of pity restless for the common good.

Make in us a captive conscience quick to hear, to act, to plead;
make us truly sisters, brothers of whatever race or creed – teach us to be fully human, open to each other's need.

We remain standing until the end of the Collect

Greeting

✠ In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

"Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you."

Confession

As we gather to celebrate this Holy Eucharist to the glory of God, we prepare ourselves by confessing our sins, trusting in the goodness of our merciful Father, upheld by the gentleness of our companion Jesus, seeing our lives anew in the radiance of the life-giving Spirit.

Heavenly Father,

We have sinned in thought, word and deed, and have failed to do what we ought to have done.

We are sorry and truly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ who died for us, forgive us all that is past and lead us in his way to walk as children of light.

Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, ✠ forgive you and set you free from sin,
and keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

We remain standing

Kyrie eleison

Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison.

Translation

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

Collect

Let us pray.

O God, for as much as without you we are not able to please you: mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

We sit

Word

Psalmody

You have been gracious to your land, O God; you have restored the good fortune of Jacob.

You have forgiven the iniquity of your people and blotted out all their sins.

You have withdrawn all your fury and turned yourself from your wrathful indignation.

Restore us then, O God our Saviour; let your anger depart from us.

Will you be displeased with us for ever; will you prolong your anger from age to age?

Will you not give us life again, that your people may rejoice in you?

Psalm 85:1-6

Music

George Guest (1924-2002)

Reading

A reading from the Epistle of Saint Paul to the Ephesians.

Deary beloved: Putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbours, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labour and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you.

Hear the word of life to the world.

Thanks be to God.

Ephesians 4:25-32

We stand, turning to face the Book of the Gospels in the Nave

Gospel

✠ Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia. R. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

✠ Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up. R. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia. ✠ Unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. R. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Listen to the Holy Gospel according to ✠ Saint Matthew.

Glory to you, O Christ.

At that time: When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying, “I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not murder’; and ‘whoever murders shall be liable to judgement.’ But I say to you that if you are angry with a friend, you will be liable to judgement; and if you insult a friend, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, ‘You fool’, you will be liable to the hell of fire. So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your friend has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your friend, and then come and offer your gift.”

This is the Gospel of our Saviour.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Matthew 5:20-24

We sit at the start of the sermon

Sermon in the series “To the far off and the near”

Teach • How can we nurture our belief?

As we walk Christ’s way of faith, hope and love, we must do our own “soul work”, allowing the gentleness of grace to transform our minds, and knowing God within us, near that we are to ourselves. And we must also look outwards, seeing the Spirit at work in the lives of those around us, and following the Spirit to show the signs of Cross and Resurrection in our neighbourhoods and our relationships. This season’s sermon series – “To the far off and the near” – will explore five ways in which we are called to be transformed and to transform our world in Christ’s name.

The Very Revd Prof. Gordon McPhate

At the end of the sermon, we stand

Creed

Together, let us affirm our faith.

I believe and trust in God the Father, who created all that is.

I believe and trust in his Son Jesus Christ, who redeemed humankind.

I believe and trust in his Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God.

I believe and trust in one God, ✠ Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Intercessions

With all our heart and with all our mind let us pray to God.

We sit or kneel

Holy God, we pray for the Church, created for your glory. We pray for Andrew our Bishop; for the daily life and ministry of our Cathedral and of Eglwys y Groes; and for all who will cross the threshold of this holy place as pilgrims and visitors this coming week. Extend to us your salvation and growth.

✠ God in your mercy,
✠ Hear our prayer.

Holy God, we pray for the world, created by your love. We pray especially for the people of Ukraine and Russia; for justice and peace in those lands. Extend to us your righteousness and your reconciling love.

✠ God in your mercy,
✠ Hear our prayer.

Holy God, we pray for your people, created in your image, and especially for the lonely, the bereaved and the sick. From our community, we pray especially for [...] . Breathe on them the breath of life and bring to them your mercy and grace.

✠ God in your mercy,

✠ Hear our prayer.

Holy God, we pray for those we love but see no longer. We pray for those who have died recently, among them [...] ; and for [...] whose years mind falls at this time.

✠ Rest eternal grant unto them, O God.

✠ And let light perpetual shine upon them.

✠ ✠ May they rest in peace.

✠ And rise in glory.

Uniting our prayers with those of Mary the Mother of God, Deiniol, Seiriol, Cadfan and all the Saints of Bardsey, we pray:

✠ Merciful Father,

✠ Accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.

We stand to sing the hymn, during which a Collection is taken

We are Censed during the hymn as a sign of purification and sanctification, and return the Thurifer's reverence

Hymn

Thou hidden source of calm repose, thou all-sufficient love divine,
my help and refuge from my foes,
secure I am if thou art mine;
and lo! from sin and grief and shame
I hide me, Jesus, in thy name.

Thy mighty name salvation is,
and keeps my happy soul above,
comfort it brings, and power and peace,
and joy and everlasting love;
to me with thy dear name are given pardon and holiness and heaven.

Jesus, my all in all thou art,
my rest in toil, my ease in pain,
the medicine of my broken heart,
in war my peace, in loss my gain,
my smile beneath the tyrant's frown,
in shame my glory and my crown.

In want my plentiful supply,
in weakness my almighty power,
in bonds my perfect liberty,
my light in Satan's darkest hour,

in grief my joy unspeakable, my life in death, my heaven in hell.

We remain standing until we share the Peace

Offertory

We bring to this place the bread that sustains us.

It will become for us the bread of life.

We bring to this place the wine that mellows us.

It will become for us the lifeblood of the world.

Eucharistic Prayer

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, it is our duty and our joy at all times and in all places to give you thanks, holy Father, all-powerful and ever-living God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For he is our great high priest who has freed us from our sins and has made us a royal priesthood serving you, our God and Father.

And so with the hosts of angels and all the company of heaven we proclaim the glory of your name and join in their unending hymn of praise:

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

✠ Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Music

Communion Service in A-flat, Basil Harwood (1859-1949)

We remain standing

All praise and thanks to you, true and living God, Creator of all things, Giver of life. You formed us in your own image; but we have marred that image and fall short of your glory. We give you thanks that you sent your Son to share our life; you gave him up to death that the world might be saved, and you raised him from the dead that we might live in him and he in us.

Sanctify with your Spirit this bread and wine, your gifts to us, that they may be for us the body and blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you: do this in remembrance of me. ✠

In the same way after supper he took the cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, Drink from this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins: do this as often as you drink it in remembrance of me. ✠

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come in glory.

As he has commanded us, Father, we remember Jesus Christ, your Son. Proclaiming his victorious death, rejoicing in his resurrection and waiting for him to come in glory we bring to you this bread, this cup. Accept our sacrifice of thanks and praise.

Restore and revive your people, renew us and all for whom we pray with your grace and heavenly ✠ blessing, and at the last receive us with all your saints into that unending joy promised by your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, for ever and ever.

✠ Amen.

We remain standing

Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, we boldly pray:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Peace

You consecrate us by your Spirit to make us one Body, growing from separation into your likeness, our nearness the gift of your peace.

The Peace of the Living God be always with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

We share a sign of Peace.

We share a sign of Peace; then we sit or kneel

Breaking

O Lamb of God: that takest away the sins of the world; have mercy upon us. O Lamb of God: that takest away the sins of the world; have mercy upon us. O Lamb of God: that takest away the sins of the world; grant us thy peace.

Music

Communion

✠ Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Happy are those who are called to his supper.

Saviour, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

We make our Communion, following the directions of the Stewards, receiving the Sacramental Host and, if we wish, the Precious Blood

Motet

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keep it unto the end.

Words

Music

Thomas Attwood (1765-1838)

After all have made their Communion, we stand to sing the hymn

Hymn

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord:
unnumbered blessings, give my spirit voice;
tender to me the promise of his word;
in God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his name:
make known his might, the deeds his arm has done;
his mercy sure, from age to age the same;
his holy name, the Lord, the Mighty One.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his might:
powers and dominions lay their glory by;
proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight,
the hungry fed, the humble lifted high.

Tell out, my soul, the glories of his word:
firm is his promise, and his mercy sure.
Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord
to children's children and for evermore!

Departing

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

May the love of Jesus Christ draw you to himself; may his power strengthen you in his service; and may his joy fill your hearts; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.

Let us go forth in peace.

In the Name of Christ. Amen.

We remain standing until the ministers have departed; we then sit or depart

Visiting Choir

We are delighted to welcome Coniunctio Septentrionales Cantores to sing at Cymun Bendigaidd ar Gân, the Choral Holy Eucharist and at Choral Evensong today. It is a great gift to us to have the company of visiting singers over the summer months, and it is good to welcome them into the pattern of our liturgical life here at the Cathedral.

Bring & Share Lunch

Our next Bring & Share Lunch will take place at 12.15pm, following the Choral Holy Eucharist, on the Festival of Mary the Mother of God, Sunday 13 August. Our Bring & Share Lunches are an opportunity for conversation, conviviality, welcome and kindness. All are invited; and if you would like suggestions about food to bring, please speak to Canon Jane Coutts.

Weekday worship over the summer months

At the heart of our weekday worship here at the Cathedral and in Eglwys y Groes is the celebration of the Eucharist. The Eucharist is celebrated daily at the Cathedral at 12.30pm, every day from Monday to Saturday; and weekly at Eglwys y Groes, on Thursdays at 2.00pm.

The offering of prayer and praise at Choral Evensong is another important component of the Cathedral's worshipping life. During the summer months, while our choral forces are reduced, Choral Evensong is offered weekly at 3.30pm on Sunday afternoons, while our our weekday Choral Evensongs are suspended until the full Choir's return. Evening Prayer will be said every Thursday at 5.30pm.

Please make the most of the regular round of worship here. The 12.30pm weekday celebrations of the Eucharist are a quiet, meditative moment in the middle of the day. There is such a warm welcome at Eglwys y Groes in Masgeirchen on Thursdays, including afternoon tea after the service. And our Sunday Choral Evensongs are beautiful and reflective.

The Pilgrim-Friends of Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in Bangor

A brochure about the Pilgrim-Friends of Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in Bangor – our new friends association – is available at the Cathedral. Please take one away with you, and share news of the Pilgrim-Friends with your friends and those who may wish to support our common life here at the Cathedral.

Safeguarding

Safeguarding children and adults at risk is vital, and we are committed to fostering an environment where everyone is able to worship and participate in the life of Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in safety. If you have any concerns, please raise them immediately with a member of the Cathedral team.

Sustainability and permissions

We use 100% recycled, low carbon dioxide paper.

Many of our services are streamed on Facebook, and the recording made available thereafter on the Cathedral's Facebook page. An official photographer may be on duty. Your attendance constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording or broadcast. If you do not wish a photograph of you or a child in your care to be used by the Cathedral, please speak to a member of the Cathedral team.
