Welcome to Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in Bangor.

You stand now where Deiniol stood almost a millennium and a half ago.

Here, in the year 525, he gathered around him a community of faith, hope and love, and raised around it a hazel fence—
the original bangor—for shelter and sanctuary.

Our prayer is that you,
too, will be embraced
here by the same faith, hope and love that we proclaim and live by today.

Y Cymun Bendigaid

Cyflwyniad i'r Cymun Bendigaid

Yn y Cymun hwn byddwn yn cwrdd â'r Crist bythol atgyfodedig mewn bara a gwin, ei Gorff a'i Waed ef yn ein plith. Wrth inni ymgynnull, byddwn yn paratoi ein hunain i gwrdd â Christ trwy adnabod ein pechodau – y ffyrdd yr ydym wedi galaru Duw yn ein bywydau – ac yn derbyn gollyngdod, a chawn ein hatgoffa o faddeuant Duw. Yna rydyn ni'n gwrando ar ddarlleniadau o'r Beibl, gan ganfod yno arweiniad, her, cysur a newydd da gan Dduw. Wrth gamu at fwrrd yr allor, cynigiwn i Dduw ein gweddi dros bawb mewn angen. Wrth galon ein haddoliad heddiw, byddwn yn cymryd bara a gwin, byddwn yn gofyn am fendith gweddnewidiol Duw arnynt, yn torri'r bara, ac – fel aelodau o Gorff toredig, trwsiedig Crist – byddwn yn Cymuno. Daw ein haddoliad i ben wrth inni dderbyn bendith Duw, yn gynhaliaeth inni wrth ymadael. Waeth pa mor bell yn ôl y gwnaethoch hynny ddiwethaf, mae croeso i chi Gymuno yma heddiw. Os hoffech chi Gymuno am y tro cyntaf, neu gael eich Bedyddio, siaradwch ag aelod o dîm yr Gadeirlan. Ceir ffydd, gobaith a chariad yma i bawb.

Yn arferol, defnyddir darllenidaau'r Sul blaenorol yn ein dathliadau beunyddiol o'r Cymun. Cawn ein gwahodd i wrando yn ofalus, er mwyn, fel petai, i'r enaid ei glywed. Dyma gyfle i ddod i gnoi cil ar eiriau'r Beibl – i brofi'i flas. Mae'n gyfle i sylwi ar beth sy'n tynnu'n sylw. A yw'n berson? Gair? Delwedd? Ystum? Pam fod hynny wedi neidio i flaen y meddwl? Caniatewch i'r myfyriadau "fod" o'ch mewn, a chludwch hwy gyda chi oddi yma.

Addoli gyda ni heddiw

Mae'r llyfrynn hwn yn cynnwys popeth a ddywedir ac a genir yn ystod ein haddoliad. Fe'ch gwahoddir i fynd â'r llyfrynn adref gyda chi, i fyfyrion yn eich amser eich hun ar y geiriau sanctaidd sydd yn ddo. Fodd bynnag, nid darllen neu arsylwi ydi addoli – ond gweithgaredd, a ninnau'n cymryd rhan, ochr yn ochr â'r rhai sy'n cynnnull gyda ni ac, y tu hwnt i hynny, ochr yn ochr â llu'r nef i gyd. Dyrchefwch, felly, eich llygaid; sylwch ar liw, golau, sain, symudiad a harddwch; codwch eich llais; cyfranogwch yn yr hyn a fydd yn eich gweddnewid, o roi iddo'r cyfle.

Yn ystod ein haddoliad, rydyn ni'n dweud ac yn canu gyda'n gilydd y testun mewn teip trwm. Mae testun Cymraeg wedi'i argraffu ar y tudalennau chwith, a'r testun Saesneg ar y dde. Mae croeso ichi wneud arwydd o'r Groes pan fydd y geiriau wedi'u marcio ag ✕. Cynigir cyfarwyddiadau eraill (rhuddellau) mewn teip coch; os ydych chi'n ei chael hi'n fwy cyfforddus, eisteddwch yn hytrach na sefyll neu benlinio.

The Holy Eucharist

An introduction to the Holy Eucharist

At this Eucharist we will meet the risen, living Christ in bread and wine, which become for us his Body and his Blood. As we gather, we will prepare ourselves to meet Christ by acknowledging our sins – the ways in which we have grieved God in our lives – and are reminded of God's forgiveness. We then listen to readings from the Bible, where we find guidance, challenge, comfort and good news from God. As we step towards the altar-table, we offer to God our prayer for all in need. At the heart of our worship today, we will take bread and wine, we will ask for God's transfiguring blessing upon them, we break the bread, and – as the broken, mended Body of Christ that we ourselves are – we will make our Communion. Our worship ends with the assurance of God's blessing, sustaining us as we depart. No matter how long ago you last did so, you are welcome to make your Communion with us here today. If you would like to make your Communion for the first time, or to be Baptised, please speak to a member of the Cathedral team. Faith, hope and love are here offered for everybody.

Our readings at our weekday celebrations of the Eucharist are usually those of the preceding Sunday. We are invited to listen carefully, so that the soul might hear. Here is an opportunity to ruminate on the word of the Bible – to taste it and experience its flavour. It's an opportunity to notice what draws our attention. Is it a person? A word? An image? A gesture? Why has this jumped out at me? Allow your reflections to "be" within you and accompany you from this place.

Worshipping with us today

This booklet contains everything said during our worship. You are invited to take the booklet away with you, to reflect in your own time on the holy words it contains. However, worship is not primarily something that we read or observe – it is an activity, in which we all participate, alongside those who are gathered with us and, we believe, alongside the whole company of heaven. Be sure, therefore, to look up; to notice colour, light, sound, movement and beauty; to raise up your voice; to take your full part; to be formed and transformed.

During our worship, we say and sing together the text in bold type. The Welsh-language text is printed on the left-hand pages, and the English-language text on the right. We may make a sign of the Cross at times when the words are marked with ✕. Other directions (rubrics) are offered in red type; if you find it more comfortable to sit rather than stand or kneel, please do so.

Darlleniad o Lyfr y Proffwyd Jeremeia.

Fel hyn y dywed y Sanctaidd Un: Melltigedig fo'r sawl sydd â'i hyder mewn meidrollyn, ac yn gwneud cnawd yn fraich iddo, ac yn gwyro oddi wrth y Sanctaidd Un. Bydd fel prysgwydd yn y diffeithwch; ni fydd yn gweld daioni pan ddaw. Fe gyfanhedda fannau moelion yr anialwch, mewn tir hallt heb neb yn trigo ynddo. Bendigedig yw'r sawl sy'n hyderu yn y Bywiol Un, a'r Bythol Un yn hyder iddo. Y mae fel pren a blannwyd ar lan dyfroedd, yn gwthio'i wreiddiau i'r afon, heb ofni gwres pan ddaw, a'i ddail yn ir; ar dymor sych ni phrydera, ac ni phaid â ffrwytho. Y mae'r galon yn fwy ei thwyll na dim, a thu hwnt i iachâd; pwy sy'n ei deall hi? Ond yr wylfi, y Sanctaidd Un, yn chwilio'r galon ac yn profi cymhellion, i roi i bawb yn ôl eu ffyrdd ac yn ôl ffrwyth eu gweithredoedd.

Clywch air bywyd i'n byd.

Diolch a fo i Dduw.

Reading

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah.

Thus says the Holy One: Cursed are those who trust in mere mortals and make mere flesh their strength, whose hearts turn away from the Holy One. They shall be like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see when relief comes. They shall live in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. Blessed are those who trust in the Living One, whose trust is the Eternal One. They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream. It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought it is not anxious, and it does not cease to bear fruit. The heart is devious above all else; it is perverse – who can understand it? I, the Holy One, test the mind and search the heart, to give to all according to their ways, according to the fruit of their doings.

Hear the word of life to the world.

Thanks be to God.

Bryd hynny: Dywedodd lesu wrth ei ddisgyblion, "Yn wir, 'rwy'n dweud wrthych mai anodd fydd hi i rywun cyfoethog fynd i mewn i deyrnas nefoedd. 'Rwy'n dweud wrthych eto, y mae'n haws i gamel fynd trwy grau nodwydd nag i rywun cyfoethog fynd i mewn i deyrnas Dduw." Pan glywodd y disgyblion hyn, synasant yn fawr ac meddent, "Pwy felly all gael ei achub?" Edrychodd lesu arnynt a dywedodd wrthynt, "Gyda dynion y mae hyn yn amhosibl, ond gyda Duw y mae pob peth yn bosibl." Yna atebodd Pedr ef, "Dyma ni wedi gadael pob peth a'th ganlyn di. Beth felly a gawn ni?" Dywedodd lesu wrthynt, "Yn wir, 'rwy'n dweud wrthych, pan enir yr oes newydd, pan fydd Mab y Dyn yn eistedd ar ei orsedd ogoneddus, byddwch chwi a'm canlynodd i hefyd yn eistedd ar ddeuddeg Gorsedd gan farnu deuddeg llwyth Israel. Gospel ℣ Alleluia. ℥ Alleluia. ℣ Many who are first will be last, and the last will be first. ℥ Alleluia.

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Listen to the Holy Gospel according to ☧ Saint Matthew.

Glory to you, O Christ.

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly I tell you, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astounded and said, “Then who can be saved?” But Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible.” Then Peter said in reply, “Look, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?” Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man is seated on the throne of his glory, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields, for my name’s sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

This is the Gospel of our Saviour.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Offertory

We bring to this place the bread that sustains us.

It will become for us the bread of life.

We bring to this place the wine that mellows us.

It will become for us the lifeblood of the world.

Eucharistic Prayer

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, it is our duty and our joy at all times and in all places to give you thanks, holy Father, all-powerful and everliving God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

We celebrate this feast in thanksgiving for your servant Deiniol. You inspire us by his care and love, instruct us by his teaching and encourage us by his example as one who cares for your flock.

And so with the hosts of angels and all the company of heaven we proclaim the glory of your name and join in their unending hymn of praise:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Y nos y bradychwyd ef, cymerodd fara ac, wedi rhoi diolch, fe'i torrodd a'i roi i'w ddisgyblion, gan ddweud, Cymerwch, bwytewch; hwn yw fy nghorff a roddir drosoch: gwnewch hyn er cof amdanaf. ✕

All praise and thanks to you, true and living God, Creator of all things, Giver of life. You formed us in your own image; but we have marred that image and fall short of your glory. We give you thanks that you sent your Son to share our life; you gave him up to death that the world might be saved, and you raised him from the dead that we might live in him and he in us.

Sanctify with your Spirit this bread and wine, your gifts to us, that they may be for us the body and blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you: do this in remembrance of me. ✕

In the same way after supper he took the cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, Drink from this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins: do this as often as you drink it in remembrance of me. ✕

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come in glory.

As he has commanded us, Father, we remember Jesus Christ, your Son. Proclaiming his victorious death, rejoicing in his resurrection and waiting for him to come in glory we bring to you this bread, this cup. Accept our sacrifice of thanks and praise.

Restore and revive your people, renew us and all for whom we pray with your grace and heavenly ✕ blessing, and at the last receive us with all your saints into that unending joy promised by your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, for ever and ever.

Choral Evensong

An introduction to Choral Evensong

The service of Choral Evensong has deep roots. It is an inheritance from the prayer life of Benedictine monasteries, where the turning of the hours of the day was marked by communal prayer. The service we know today is from the sixteenth-century Book of Common Prayer, in which two of the ancient monastic observances were combined to form a service to mark the end of the day – and “in quires and places where they sing,” to do so chorally.

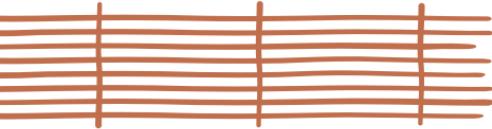

At Evensong, we listen to lessons from the Old and New Testaments, and sing the two evening songs from the Gospel According to Saint Luke – the Magnificat (a song about our confidence in God’s enduring promise) and the Nunc dimittis (a song of about our fulfilment in Christ enduring light). Sung and spoken prayer, and the music of an anthem, draw us heart and mind to God

This booklet contains everything said during our worship. You are invited to take the booklet away with you, to reflect in your own time on the holy words it contains. However, worship is not primarily something that we read or observe – it is an activity, in which we all participate, alongside those who are gathered with us and, we believe, alongside the whole company of heaven. Be sure, therefore, to look up; to notice colour, light, sound, movement and beauty; to raise up your voice; to take your full part; to be formed and transformed.

During our worship, we say and sing together the text in bold type. The Welsh-language text is printed on the left-hand pages, and the English-language text on the right. We may make a sign of the Cross at times when the words are marked with ✝. Other directions (rubrics) are offered in red type; if you find it more comfortable to sit rather than stand or kneel, please do so.

Hear me when I call O God, defender of my right: thou didst free me when I was hard pressed; have mercy upon me and hearken unto my prayer.

O ye sons of men, how long shall my glory be reviled: how long will ye have such pleasure in folly and seek after falsehood?

Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man that is godly: when I call upon the Lord he will hear me.

Stand in awe and sin not: commune with your own heart within your chamber and be still.

Offer sacrifices in their appointed seasons: and put your trust in the Lord.

There be many that say "Who will shew us any good?": Lord lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

Thou hast put gladness in my heart: more than men have when their corn and wine increase.

I will lay me down in peace and take my rest: for it is thou Lord only that makest me dwell in safety..

I will give thanks unto thee O Lord with my whole heart: I will speak of all thy marvellous works.

I will be glad and rejoice in thee: yea my songs will I make of thy name O thou Most Highest.

When mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou sittest upon thy throne and judgest right.

Thou hast rebuked the nations and destroyed the ungodly: thou hast blotted out their name for ever and ever.

The enemy hath perished, thou hast made his cities a desolation: their memorial is clean gone for ever.

But the Lord sitteth enthroned for ever: he hath prepared his seat for judgement.

For he shall judge the world in righteousness: and minister true judgement unto the peoples.

The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed: even a refuge in the time of trouble.

And they that heed thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou Lord hast never failed them that seek thee.

O praise the Lord who dwelleth in Zion: tell the peoples what things he hath done.

For when he taketh vengeance for blood he remembereth them: and forgetteth not the cry of the poor.

Have mercy upon me O Lord, consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate me: thou that liftest me up from the gates of death,

That I may shew all thy praises within the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

The nations are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the same net which they hid privily is their foot taken.

The Lord hath made himself known, he hath executed judgement: the ungodly is trapped in the work of his own hands.

The wicked shall be given over unto death: even all the nations that forget God.

For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the hope of the poor shall not perish for ever.

Up Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the nations be judged before thee.

Put them in fear O Lord: that the nations may know themselves to be but men.

Shout with joy unto God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his name, make his praise to be glorious.

Say unto God "How wonderful are thy works: because of the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies humble themselves before thee.

For all the world shall worship thee: sing unto thee and praise thy name."

O come hither and behold the works of God: how wonderful he is in his doing toward the children of men.

He turned the sea into dry land; they went through the water on foot: therefore in him let us rejoice.

He ruleth with his power for ever, his eyes behold the peoples: let not the rebellious lift up their heads.

O praise our God ye peoples: and make the voice of his praise to be heard,

Who holdeth our soul in life: and hath not suffered our feet to slip.

For thou O God hast proved us: thou hast tried us like as silver is tried.

Thou broughtest us into the snare: and laidest trouble upon our loins.

Thou madest men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and water but thou broughtest us out into a place of liberty.

I will go into thine house with burnt-offerings: and unto thee will I pay my vows,

Even those which I promised with my lips: and spake with my mouth when I was in trouble.

I will offer unto thee fat burnt sacrifices, with the incense of rams: I will offer bullocks and goats.

O come hither and hearken, all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what he hath done for my soul.

I called unto him with my mouth: and gave him praises with my tongue.

If I had inclined unto wickedness with mine heart: the Lord would not have heard me.

But God hath heard me: and hath given heed to the voice of my prayer.

Praise be to God who hath not refused my prayer: nor turned his loving-kindness from me.

In the day of thy power shall princes be at thy side in holy raiment: like the dew, from the womb of the morning thy warriors shall gather about thee.

Here begins the tenth verse of the twenty-second chapter of the Book of Exodus.

In those days: When someone delivers to another a donkey, ox, sheep, or any other animal for safekeeping, and it dies or is injured or is carried off, without anyone seeing it, an oath before the Holy One shall decide between the two of them that the one has not laid hands on the property of the other; the owner shall accept the oath, and no restitution shall be made. But if it was stolen, restitution shall be made to its owner. If it was mangled by beasts, let it be brought as evidence; restitution shall not be made for the mangled remains. When someone borrows an animal from another and it is injured or dies, the owner not being present, full restitution shall be made. If the owner was present, there shall be no restitution; if it was hired, only the hiring fee is due.

Here ends the First Lesson.

Exodus 22:10-15

Here begins the sixteenth verse of the twenty-second chapter of the Book of Exodus.

In those days: When a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to be married, and lies with her, he shall give the bride-price for her and make her his wife. But if her father refuses to give her to him, he shall pay an amount equal to the bride-price for virgins. You shall not permit a female sorcerer to live. Whoever lies with an animal shall be put to death. Whoever sacrifices to any god, other than the Holy One alone, shall be devoted to destruction. You shall not wrong or oppress a resident alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt. You shall not abuse any widow or orphan. If you do abuse them, when they cry out to me, I will surely heed their cry; my wrath will burn, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children orphans. If you lend money to my people, to the poor among you, you shall not deal with them as a creditor; you shall not exact interest from them. If you take your neighbour's cloak in pawn, you shall restore it before the sun goes down; for it may be your neighbour's only clothing to use as cover; in what else shall that person sleep? And if your neighbour cries out to me, I will listen, for I am compassionate. You shall not revile God, or curse a leader of your people. You shall not delay to make offerings from the fullness of your harvest and from the outflow of your presses. The firstborn of your sons you shall give to me. You shall do the same with your oxen and with your sheep: for seven days it shall remain with its mother; on the eighth day you shall give it to me. You shall be people consecrated to me; therefore you shall not eat any meat that is mangled by beasts in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Here ends the First Lesson.

Exodus 22:16-31

Here begins the thirteenth verse of the fifty-second chapter of the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Thus says the Holy One: See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. Just as there were many who were astonished at him – so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals – so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate. Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the Holy One been revealed? For he grew up before God like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account. Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Living One has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the Eternal One to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Holy One shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors;

yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Eseia | Isaiah 52:13 – 53:12

Llith | ar ddydd Iau Lesson | on Thursday

Here begins the sixty-third chapter of the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Thus says the Holy One: “Who is this that comes from Edom, from Bozrah in garments stained crimson? Who is this so splendidly robed, marching in his great might?” “It is I, announcing vindication, mighty to save.” “Why are your robes red, and your garments like theirs who tread the wine press?” “I have trodden the wine press alone, and from the peoples no one was with me; I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my wrath; their juice spattered on my garments, and stained all my robes. For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year for my redeeming work had come. I looked, but there was no helper; I stared, but there was no one to sustain me; so my own arm brought me victory, and my wrath sustained me. I trampled down peoples in my anger, I crushed them in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth.” I will recount the gracious deeds of the Holy One, the praiseworthy acts of the Living One, because of all that the Eternal One has done for us, and the great favour to the house of Israel that God has shown them according to God’s mercy, according to the abundance of God’s steadfast love. For God said, “Surely they are my people, children who will not deal falsely”; and became their saviour in all their distress. It was no messenger or angel but God’s presence that saved them; in God’s love and in God’s pity God redeemed them; God lifted them up and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled and grieved God’s holy spirit; therefore God became their enemy; God fought against them. Then they remembered the days of old, of Moses God’s servant. Where is the one who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is the one who put within them his holy spirit, who caused God’s glorious arm to march at the right hand of Moses, who divided the waters before them to make for God an everlasting name, who led them through the depths? Like a horse in the desert, they did not stumble. Like cattle that go down into the valley, the spirit of the Holy One gave them rest.

Thus you led your people, to make for yourself a glorious name.
Look down from heaven and see, from your holy and glorious habitation. Where are your zeal and your might? The yearning of your heart and your compassion? They are withheld from me.
For you are our father, though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not acknowledge us; you, O God, are our father; our Redeemer from of old is your name.

Here ends the First Lesson.

For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden; for behold, from henceforth, all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations. He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away. He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Nawr: Tra oedd Apolos yng Nghorinth, teithiodd Paul drwy'r parthau uchaf, a daeth i Effesus. Yno daeth o hyd i rai disgylion, a gofynnodd iddynt, "A dderbyniwasoch yr Ysbryd Glân pan gredasoch?" Meddent hwythau wrtho, "Naddo; ni chlywsom hyd yn oed fod yna Ysbryd Glân." Dywedodd yntau, "Â pha fedydd, ynteu, y bedyddiwyd chwi?" Atebasant hwythau, "Â bedydd loan." Ac meddai Paul, "Bedydd edifeirwch oedd bedydd loan, ac fe ddywedodd wrth y bobl am gredu yn yr hwn oedd yn dod ar ei ôl ef, hynny yw, yn lesu." Pan glywsant hyn, fe'u bedyddiwyd hwy i enw lesu, a phan roddodd Paul ei ddwylo arnynt daeth yr Ysbryd Glân arnynt, a dechreusant lefaru â thafodau a phroffwydo. Yr oedd tua deuddeg ohonynt i gyd. Aeth i mewn i'r synagog, ac am dri mis bu'n llefaru'n hy yno, gan ymresymu a cheisio eu hargyhoeddi yngylch teyrnas Dduw. Ond gan fod rhai yn ymgaledu ac yn gwrthod credu, ac yn difenwi'r Ffordd yng ngŵydd y gynulleidfa, ymneilltuodd oddi wrthynt gan gymryd ei ddisgylion oddi yno, a pharhau i ymresymu bob dydd yn narlithfa Tyranus. Parhaodd hyn am ddwy flynedd, nes i holl drigolion Asia, yn Iddewon a Groegiaid, glywed gair y Sanctaidd Un.

Translation

Now: While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul passed through the inland regions and came to Ephesus, where he found some disciples. He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?" They replied, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." Then he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They answered, "Into John's baptism." Paul said, 'John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus.' On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of Jesus. When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied – altogether there were about twelve of them. He entered the synagogue and for three months spoke out boldly, and argued persuasively about the kingdom of God. When some stubbornly refused to believe and spoke evil of the Way before the congregation, he left them, taking the disciples with him, and argued daily in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the word of the Holy One.

Llith | ar ddydd Mawrth Lesson | on Tuesday

Yma y mae yn dechrau unfed adnod ar ddeg pedwaredd bennod ar bymtheg Actau'r Apostolion Sanctaidd.

Nawr: Gan mor rhyfeddol oedd y gwrthiau yr oedd Duw'n eu gwneud trwy ddwylo Paul, byddai pobl yn dod â chadachau a llieiniau oedd wedi cyffwrdd â'i groen ef, ac yn eu gosod ar y cleifion, a byddai eu clefydau yn eu gadael, a'r ysbrydion drwg yn mynd allan ohonynt. A dyma rai o'r Iddewon a fyddai'n mynd o amgylch gan fwrw allan gythreuliaid, hwythau'n ceisio enwi enw Iesu uwch ben y rhai oedd ag ysbrydion drwg ganddynt, gan ddweud, "Yr wyf yn eich siarsio chwi yn enw Iesu, yr un y mae Paul yn ei bregethu." Ac yr oedd gan ryw Scefa, prif offeiriad Iddewig, saith mab oedd yn gwneud hyn. Ond atebodd yr ysbryd drwg hwy, "Iesu, yr wyf yn ei adnabod ef; a Paul, gwn amdano yntau; ond chwi, pwy ydych?" Dyma'r dyn ac yn ddo'r ysbryd drwg yn llamu arnynt, a'u trechu i gyd, a'u maeddu nes iddynt ffoi o'r tŷ yn noeth a chlwyfedig. Daeth hyn yn hysbys i'r holl Iddewon a Groegiaid oedd yn byw yn Effesus, a dychrynnodd pawb; a chafodd enw Iesu ei fawrygu. Daeth llawer o'r rhai oedd bellach yn gredinwyr, a chyffesu eu dewiniaeth ar goedd. Casglodd llawer o'r rhai a fu'n ymarfer â swynion eu llyfrau ynghyd, a'u llosgi yng ngŵydd pawb; cyfrifwyd gwerth y rhain, a'i gael yn hanner can mil o ddarnau arian. Felly, yn ôl nerth y Sanctaidd Un, yr oedd y gair yn cynyddu a llwyddo. Wedi i'r pethau hyn gael eu cwblhau, rhoddodd Paul ei fryd ar deithio trwy Facedonia ac Achaia, ac yna mynd i Gaersalem. "Wedi imi fod yno," meddai, "rhaid imi weld Rhufain hefyd." Anfonodd i Facedonia ddau o'r rhai oedd yn gweini arno, Timotheus ac Erastus, ond arhosodd ef ei hun am amser yn Asia.

Translation

Now: God did extraordinary miracles through Paul, so that when the handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his skin were brought to the sick, their diseases left them, and the evil spirits came out of them. Then some itinerant Jewish exorcists tried to use the name of Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul proclaims." Seven sons of a Jewish high priest named Sceva were doing this. But the evil spirit said to them in reply, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?" Then the man with the evil spirit leapt on them, mastered them all, and so overpowered them that they fled out of the house naked and wounded. When this became known to all residents of Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks, everyone was awestruck; and the name of Jesus was praised. Also many of those who became believers confessed and disclosed their practices. A number of those who practised magic collected their books and burned them publicly; when the value of these books was calculated, it was found to come to fifty thousand silver coins. So the word of the Holy One grew mightily and prevailed. Now after these things had been accomplished, Paul resolved in the Spirit to go through Macedonia and Achaia, and then to go on to Jerusalem. He said, "After I have gone there, I must also see Rome." So he sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he himself stayed for some time longer in Asia.

Actau | Acts 19:11-22

Yma y mae yn dechrau unfed adnod ar ddeg ail bennod Llythyr yr Apostol Paul at yr Effesiad.

Garedigion: Chwi oedd gynt yn Genhedloedd o ran y cnawd, chwi sydd yn cael eich galw yn ddienwaededig gan y rhai a elwir yn enwaededig (ar gyfrif gwaith dwylo dynol ar y cnawd), chwi, meddaf, cofiwch eich bod yr amser hwnnw heb Grist, yn ddieithriaid i ddinasyddiaeth Israel, yn estroniaid i'r cyfamodau a'u haddewid, heb obaith a heb Dduw yn y byd. Ond yn awr, yng Nghrist lesu, yr ydych chwi, a fu unwaith ymhell, wedi eich dwyn yn agos trwy waed Crist. Oherwydd ef yw ein heddwch ni. Gwnaeth y ddau, yr Iddewon a'r Cenhedloedd, yn un, wedi chwalu trwy ei gnawd ei hun y canolfur o elyniaeth oedd yn eu gwahanu. Dirymodd y Gyfraith, a'i gorchmynion a'i hordeiniadau. Ac felly, i wneud heddwch, creodd o'r ddau un ddynoliaeth newydd yn ddo ef ei hun, er mwyn cymodi'r ddau â Duw, mewn un corff, trwy'r groes; trwyddi hi fe laddodd yr elyniaeth. Fe ddaeth, a phregethu heddwch i chwi y rhai pell, a heddwch hefyd i'r rhai agos. Oherwydd trwyddo ef y mae gennym ni ein dau ffordd i ddod, mewn un Ysbryd, at y Tad. Felly, nid estroniaid a dieithriaid ydych mwyach, ond cyd-ddinasyddion â'r saint ac aelodau o deulu Duw. Yr ydych wedi eich adeiladu ar sylfaen yr apostolion a'r proffwydi, a'r conglafen yw Crist lesu ei hun. Yn ddo ef y mae pob rhan a adeiledir yn cyd-glo yn ei gilydd ac yn codi'n deml sanctaidd yn y Sanctaidd Un. Yn ddo ef yr ydych chwithau hefyd yn cael eich cydadeiladu i fod yn breswylfod i Dduw yn yr Ysbryd.

Translation

Dearly beloved: Remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called “the uncircumcision” by those who are called “the circumcision” – a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands – remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, so that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Holy One; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling-place for God.

Effesiaid | Ephesians 2:11-22

Yma y mae yn dechrau deunawfed adnod bennod cyntaf Llythyr Cyntaf yr Apostol Paul at y Corinthiaid.

Garedigion: Y gair am y groes, ffolineb yw i'r rhai sydd ar lwybr colledigaeth, ond i ni sydd ar lwybr iachawdwriaeth, gallu Duw ydyw. Y mae'n ysgrifenedig: "Dinistriaf ddoethineb y doethion, A dileaf ddeall y deallus." Pa le y mae'r un doeth? Pa le y mae'r un dysgedig? Pa le y mae ymresymydd yr oes bresennol? Oni wnaeth Duw ddoethineb y byd yn ffolineb? Oherwydd gan fod y byd, yn noethineb Duw, wedi methu adhabod Duw trwy ei ddoethineb ei hun, gwelodd Duw yn dda trwy ffolineb yr hyn yr ydym ni yn ei bregethu achub y rhai sydd yn credu. Y mae'r Iddewon yn gofyn am arwyddion, a'r Groegiaid hwythau yn chwilio am ddoethineb. Eithr nnyi, pregethu yr ydym Grist wedi ei groeshoelio, yn dramgydd i'r Iddewon ac yn ffolineb i'r Cenhedloedd; ond i'r rhai a alwyd, yn Iddewon a Groegiaid, y mae'n Grist, gallu Duw a doethineb Duw. Oherwydd y mae ffolineb Duw yn ddoethach na doethineb ddynol, a gwendid Duw yn gryfach na chryfder dynol.

Yma y terfyn yr Ail Lith.

Translation

Dearly beloved: The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart." Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Credo'r Apostolion Apostles' Creed

I believe in God
the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead,
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge
the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
✉ the Resurrection of the body,
and the Life everlasting.
Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
Amen.

O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us;
And grant us thy salvation.

O Lord, save the King;
And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Endue thy ministers with righteousness;
And make thy chosen people joyful.

O Lord, save thy people;
And bless thine inheritance.

University & Community Chaplain

The Archbishop of Wales, Andrew John, has appointed the Reverend Neville Naidoo to work alongside colleagues of other denominations within Bangor University's chaplaincy team, to lead the Cathedral's student ministry, and to broaden the rest of the Ministry Area's social justice ministries across the city of Bangor.

Neville has been a priest in the Diocese of Johannesburg, South Africa, since his ordination in 2013. His career in community development and education spans over 35 years, primarily in schools, churches and not for profit organisations. Neville is a passionate campaigner and has spent much of his career advocating on social issues, such as HIV/AIDS awareness amongst sex workers in the red light area of Durban and providing pastoral assistance to the Street Childrens Forum, The Deaf Association, The Quadraplegics Association, amongst others.

Since 2021, Neville has been working at a Catholic youth retreat centre mentoring a group of young adults who come from backgrounds of trauma and socially and economic deprivation. During his tenure as chaplain, he belonged to the National Institute of School Chaplains in South Africa which focused on the evolving role of chaplains in education and the necessity for developing interreligious and peace making care centres within schools and universities.

Neville is married to Brendon, a teacher, who has worked in South Africa, the UK, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia. They have lived together in Johannesburg for 20 years.

Fr Neville will be based at Saint Deiniol's Cathedral and will serve alongside the Cathedral ministry team.

The Sub-Dean writes: "We're looking forward to benefiting from Fr Neville's extensive chaplaincy experience as we seek to build on the Cathedral's Choir's successful student ministry to build further links with the University. Fr Neville's passion for justice and his skills working alongside people who have been marginalised by society will help us build on the vital work of the Cathedral foodbank to serve those most in need in our city."

1 October 2023

At Evensong on 1 October, new Canons will be installed in the presence of the Archbishop. The announcement of new Canons will be made tomorrow, the formal date of Saint Deiniol's Day. Please put the service date and time in your diaries – it will be a happy occasion.

This week

Please make the most of the regular round of worship here. In addition to the joyfulness of our Sunday morning Eucharists, the 12.30pm weekday celebrations of the Eucharist are a quiet, meditative moment in the middle of the day. There is such a warm welcome at Eglwys y Groes in Maseirchen on Thursdays, including afternoon tea after the service. And our Choral Evensongs are beautiful and reflective.
