Welcome to Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in Bangor.

You stand now where Deiniol stood almost a millennium and a half ago.

Here, in the year 525, he gathered around him a community of faith, hope and love, and raised around it a hazel fence—
the original bangor—for shelter and sanctuary.

Our prayer is that you,
too, will be embraced
here by the same faith,
hope and love that we proclaim and live by today.

Y Cymun Bendigaid

Cyflwyniad i'r Cymun Bendigaid

Yn y Cymun hwn byddwn yn cwrdd â'r Crist bythol atgyfodedig mewn bara a gwin, ei Gorff a'i Waed ef yn ein plith. Wrth inni ymgynnull, byddwn yn paratoi ein hunain i gwrdd â Christ trwy adnabod ein pechodau – y ffyrdd yr ydym wedi galru Duw yn ein bywydau – ac yn derbyn gollyngdod, a chawn ein hatgoffa o faddeuant Duw. Yna rydyn ni'n gwrando ar ddarlleniadau o'r Beibl, gan ganfod yno arweiniad, her, cysur a newydd da gan Dduw. Wrth gamu at fwrrd yr allor, cynigiwn i Dduw ein gweddi dros bawb mewn angen. Wrth galon ein haddoliad heddiw, byddwn yn cymryd bara a gwin, byddwn yn gofyn am fendith gweddnewidiol Duw arnynt, yn torri'r bara, ac – fel aelodau o Gorff toredig, trwsiedig Crist – byddwn yn Cymuno. Daw ein haddoliad i ben wrth inni dderbyn bendith Duw, yn gynhaliaeth inni wrth ymadael. Waeth pa mor bell yn ôl y gwnaethoch hynny ddiwethaf, mae croeso i chi Gymuno yma heddiw. Os hoffech chi Gymuno am y tro cyntaf, neu gael eich Bedyddio, siaradwch ag aelod o dîm yr Gadeirlan. Ceir ffydd, gobaith a chariad yma i bawb.

Yn arferol, defnyddir darllenadau'r Sul blaenorol yn ein dathliadau beunyddiol o'r Cymun. Cawn ein gwahodd i wrando yn ofalus, er mwyn, fel petai, i'r enaid ei glywed. Dyma gyfle i ddod i gnoi cil ar eiriau'r Beibl – i brofi'i flas. Mae'n gyfle i sylwi ar beth sy'n tynnu'n sylw. A yw'n berson? Gair? Delwedd? Ystum? Pam fod hynny wedi neidio i flaen y meddwl? Caniatewch i'r myfyriadau "fod" o'ch mewn, a chludwch hwy gyda chi oddi yma.

Addoli gyda ni heddiw

Mae'r llyfrynn hwn yn cynnwys popeth a ddywedir ac a genir yn ystod ein haddoliad. Fe'ch gwahoddir i fynd â'r llyfrynn adref gyda chi, i fyfyrion yn eich amser eich hun ar y geiriau sanctaidd sydd yn ddo. Fodd bynnag, nid darllen neu arsylwi ydi addoli – ond gweithgaredd, a ninnau'n cymryd rhan, ochr yn ochr â'r rhai sy'n cynnnull gyda ni ac, y tu hwnt i hynny, ochr yn ochr â llu'r nef i gyd. Dyrchefwch, felly, eich llygaid; sylwch ar liw, golau, sain, symudiad a harddwch; codwch eich llais; cyfranogwch yn yr hyn a fydd yn eich gweddnewid, o roi iddo'r cyfle.

Yn ystod ein haddoliad, rydyn ni'n dweud ac yn canu gyda'n gilydd y testun mewn teip trwm. Mae testun Cymraeg wedi'i argraffu ar y tudalennau chwith, a'r testun Saesneg ar y dde. Mae croeso ichi wneud arwydd o'r Groes pan fydd y geiriau wedi'u marcio ag ✕. Cynigir cyfarwyddiadau eraill (rhuddellau) mewn teip gwyrdd; os ydych chi'n ei chael hi'n fwy cyfforddus, eisteddwch yn hytrach na sefyll neu benlinio.

The Holy Eucharist

An introduction to the Holy Eucharist

At this Eucharist we will meet the risen, living Christ in bread and wine, which become for us his Body and his Blood. As we gather, we will prepare ourselves to meet Christ by acknowledging our sins – the ways in which we have grieved God in our lives – and are reminded of God's forgiveness. We then listen to readings from the Bible, where we find guidance, challenge, comfort and good news from God. As we step towards the altar-table, we offer to God our prayer for all in need. At the heart of our worship today, we will take bread and wine, we will ask for God's transfiguring blessing upon them, we break the bread, and – as the broken, mended Body of Christ that we ourselves are – we will make our Communion. Our worship ends with the assurance of God's blessing, sustaining us as we depart. No matter how long ago you last did so, you are welcome to make your Communion with us here today. If you would like to make your Communion for the first time, or to be Baptised, please speak to a member of the Cathedral team. Faith, hope and love are here offered for everybody.

Our readings at our weekday celebrations of the Eucharist are usually those of the preceding Sunday. We are invited to listen carefully, so that the soul might hear. Here is an opportunity to ruminate on the word of the Bible – to taste it and experience its flavour. It's an opportunity to notice what draws our attention. Is it a person? A word? An image? A gesture? Why has this jumped out at me? Allow your reflections to "be" within you and accompany you from this place.

Worshipping with us today

This booklet contains everything said during our worship. You are invited to take the booklet away with you, to reflect in your own time on the holy words it contains. However, worship is not primarily something that we read or observe – it is an activity, in which we all participate, alongside those who are gathered with us and, we believe, alongside the whole company of heaven. Be sure, therefore, to look up; to notice colour, light, sound, movement and beauty; to raise up your voice; to take your full part; to be formed and transformed.

During our worship, we say and sing together the text in bold type. The Welsh-language text is printed on the left-hand pages, and the English-language text on the right. We may make a sign of the Cross at times when the words are marked with ✝. Other directions (rubrics) are offered in green type; if you find it more comfortable to sit rather than stand or kneel, please do so.

Reading

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah.

Thus says the Holy One: Do not let the wise boast in their wisdom, do not let the mighty boast in their might, do not let the wealthy boast in their wealth; but let those who boast boast in this, that they understand and know me, that I am God; I act with steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth, for in these things I delight, says the Holy One.

Hear the word of life to the world.

Thanks be to God.

¶ Haleliwia.

A'th gadw di yng nghariad Crist.

Gwrandewch yr Efengyl Sanctaidd yn ôl ✝ Sant Mathew.

Gogoniant i ti, O Grist.

Bryd hynny: Dechreuodd Iesu hannerch y dyrfa fel hyn, “Ni all neb wasanaethu dau feistr; oherwydd bydd un ai'n casáu'r naill ac yn caru'r llall, neu'n deyrngar i'r naill ac yn dirmygu'r llall. Ni allwch wasanaethu Duw a Mamon. Am hynny 'rwy'n dweud wrthych, peidiwch â phryderu am eich bywyd, beth i'w fwyta na'i yfed, nac am eich corff, beth i'w wisgo; onid oes mwy i fywyd rhywun na bwyd, a mwy i'w gorff na dillad? Edrychwr ar adar yr awyr: nid ydynt yn hau nac yn medi nac yn casglu i ysguboriau, ac eto y mae eich Tad nefol yn eu bwydo. Onid ydych chwi yn llawer mwy gwerthfawr na hwy? Prun ohonoch a all ychwanegu un funud at ei oes trwy bryderu? A pham yr ydych yn pryderu am ddillad? Ystyriwch lili'r maes, pa fodd y maent yn tyfu; nid ydynt yn llafurio nac yn nyddu. Ond 'rwy'n dweud wrthych, nid oedd gan hyd yn oed Solomon yn ei holl ogoniant wisg i'w chymharu ag un o'r rhain. Os yw Duw yn dilladu felly laswellt y maes, sydd yno heddiw ac yfory yn cael ei daflu i'r ffwrn, onid llawer mwy y dillada chwi, chwi o ychydig ffydd? Peidiwch felly â phryderu a dweud, ‘Beth yr ydym i'w fwyta?’ neu ‘Beth yr ydym i'w yfed?’ neu ‘Beth yr ydym i'w wisgo?’ Dyna'r holl bethau y mae'r Cenhedloedd yn eu ceisio; y mae eich Tad nefol yn gwybod fod arnoch angen y rhain i gyd. Ond ceisiwch yn gyntaf deyrnas Dduw a'i gyfiawnder ef, a rhoir y pethau hyn i gyd yn ychwaneg i chwi. Peidiwch felly â phryderu am yfory, oherwydd bydd gan yfory ei bryder ei hun. Digon i'r diwrnod ei drafferth ei hun.”

Gospel

Y Alleluia. R Alleluia. Y Strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. R Alleluia.

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Listen to the Holy Gospel according to ¶ Saint Matthew.

Glory to you, O Christ.

At that time: Jesus taught the crowds, saying “No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth. Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you – you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today’s trouble is enough for today.”

This is the Gospel of our Saviour.

Praise to you, O Christ.

All praise and thanks to you, true and living God, Creator of all things, Giver of life. You formed us in your own image; but we have marred that image and fall short of your glory. We give you thanks that you sent your Son to share our life; you gave him up to death that the world might be saved, and you raised him from the dead that we might live in him and he in us.

Sanctify with your Spirit this bread and wine, your gifts to us, that they may be for us the body and blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you: do this in remembrance of me. **¶

In the same way after supper he took the cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, Drink from this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins: do this as often as you drink it in remembrance of me. **¶

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come in glory.

As he has commanded us, Father, we remember Jesus Christ, your Son. Proclaiming his victorious death, rejoicing in his resurrection and waiting for him to come in glory we bring to you this bread, this cup. Accept our sacrifice of thanks and praise.

Restore and revive your people, renew us and all for whom we pray with your grace and heavenly ¶ blessing, and at the last receive us with all your saints into that unending joy promised by your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, for ever and ever.

¶ Amen.

Cyflwyniad i'r Gosber ar Gân

Mae i oedfa'r Gosber ar Gân wreiddiau dwfn. Mae'n waddol o fuchedd gweddi y mynachlogydd Benedictaidd, lle roedd treigl oriau'r dydd yn esgor ar weddi ar y cyd. Daw'r ffurf a ddefnyddiwn heddiw o Lyfr Gweddi Gyffredin yr unfed ganrif ar bymtheg, lle cyfunwyd dau o'r oedfaon mynachaidd hynafol i ffurio oedfa i'w hoffrymu'n blwyfol ar drefyn dydd, ac mewn cadeirlannau ar gân.

Yn ein Gosber, byddwn yn gwrando ar lithoedd o'r Hen Destament a'r Newydd, ac yn canu'r ddwy gân hwyrol o'r Efengyl yn ôl Sant Luc – y Magnificat (cân am ein hyder yn addewid oesol Duw) a'r Nunc dimittis (cân am ein cyflawniad yng ngholeuni oesol Crist). Mae gweddi ar gân ac ar goedd, a sain yr anthem, yn ein dwyn, galon a meddwl, tuag at Dduw

Addoli gyda ni heddiw

Mae'r llyfrynn hwn yn cynnwys popeth a ddywedir ac a genir yn ystod ein haddoliad. Fe'ch gwahoddir i fynd â'r llyfrynn adref gyda chi, i fyfyrio yn eich amser eich hun ar y geiriau sanctaidd sydd yn ddo. Fodd bynnag, nid darllen neu arsylwi ydi addoli – ond gweithgaredd, a ninnau'n cymryd rhan, ochr yn ochr â'r rhai sy'n cynnull gyda ni ac, y tu hwnt i hynny, ochr yn ochr â llu'r nef i gyd. Dyrchefwch, felly, eich llygaid; sylwch ar liw, golau, sain, symudiad a harddwch; codwch eich llais; cyfranogwch yn yr hyn a fydd yn eich gweddnewid, o roi iddo'r cyfle.

Choral Evensong

An introduction to Choral Evensong

The service of Choral Evensong has deep roots. It is an inheritance from the prayer life of Benedictine monasteries, where the turning of the hours of the day was marked by communal prayer. The service we know today is from the sixteenth-century Book of Common Prayer, in which two of the ancient monastic observances were combined to form a service to mark the end of the day – and “in quires and places where they sing,” to do so chorally.

At Evensong, we listen to lessons from the Old and New Testaments, and sing the two evening songs from the Gospel According to Saint Luke – the Magnificat (a song about our confidence in God’s enduring promise) and the Nunc dimittis (a song of about our fulfilment in Christ enduring light). Sung and spoken prayer, and the music of an anthem, draw us heart and mind to God

This booklet contains everything said during our worship. You are invited to take the booklet away with you, to reflect in your own time on the holy words it contains. However, worship is not primarily something that we read or observe – it is an activity, in which we all participate, alongside those who are gathered with us and, we believe, alongside the whole company of heaven. Be sure, therefore, to look up; to notice colour, light, sound, movement and beauty; to raise up your voice; to take your full part; to be formed and transformed.

During our worship, we say and sing together the text in bold type. The Welsh-language text is printed on the left-hand pages, and the English-language text on the right. We may make a sign of the Cross at times when the words are marked with ✝. Other directions (rubrics) are offered in green type; if you find it more comfortable to sit rather than stand or kneel, please do so.

Clap your hands, all you peoples; shout to God with a cry of joy.

For God Most High is to be feared; God is the great Sovereign over all the earth.

God subdues the peoples under us and the nations under our feet.

God chooses our inheritance for us, the pride of Jacob whom God loves.

God has gone up with a shout, the Most High with the sound of the ram's-horn.

Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises to our Sovereign, sing praises.

For God is Sovereign over all the earth; sing praises with all your skill.

God reigns over the nations; God sits upon the holy throne.

The nobles of the peoples have gathered together with the people of the God of Abraham.

1The rulers of the earth belong to God, who is highly exalted.

The God of gods has spoken; God has called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty, God is revealed in glory.

O God, you will come and will not keep silence; before you there is a consuming flame, and round about you a raging storm.

You call the heavens and the earth from above to witness the judgment of your people.

"Gather before me my loyal followers, those who have made a covenant with me and sealed it with sacrifice."

Let the heavens declare the rightness of your cause, for you alone are judge.

"Hear, O my people, and I will speak: O Israel, I will bear witness against you, for I am God, your God.

I do not accuse you because of your sacrifices; your offerings are always before me.

I will take no bull-calf from your stalls, nor he-goats out of your pens;

For all the beasts of the forest are mine, the herds in their thousands upon the hills.

I know every bird in the sky, and the creatures of the fields are in my sight.

If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the whole world is mine and all that is in it.

Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving and make good your vows to the Most High.

Call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall honor me.".

Rescue me from my enemies, O God; protect me from those who rise up against me.

Rescue me from evildoers and save me from those who thirst for my blood.

See how they lie in wait for my life, how the mighty gather together against me; not for any offense or fault of mine, O God.

Not because of any guilt of mine, they run and prepare themselves for battle.

Rouse yourself, come to my side and see, for you, O God of hosts, are Israel's God.

Awake, and punish all the ungodly; show no mercy to those who are faithless and evil.

They go to and fro in the evening; they snarl like dogs and run about the city.

Behold, they boast with their mouths, and taunts are on their lips; "For who," they say, "will hear us?"

But you, O God, you laugh at them; you laugh all the ungodly to scorn.

They who dwell in the shelter of the Most High abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

They shall say to God, "You are my refuge and my stronghold, my God in whom I put my trust."

For God shall deliver you from the snare of the hunter and from the deadly pestilence.

God's pinions shall cover you, and under God's wings you shall find refuge; God's faithfulness shall be a shield and buckler.

You shall not be afraid of any terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day;

Of the plague that stalks in the darkness, nor of the sickness that lays waste at mid-day.

A thousand shall fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand, but it shall not come near you.

Your eyes have only to behold to see the reward of the wicked.

Because you have made God your refuge and the Most High your habitation,

There shall no evil happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.

For God shall give the angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you in their hands, lest you dash your foot against a stone.

You shall tread upon the lion and adder; you shall trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet.

Because you are bound to me in love, therefore will I deliver you; I will protect you, because you know my Name.

You shall call upon me, and I will answer you; I am with you in trouble; I will rescue you and bring you honor.

With long life will I satisfy you and show you my salvation.

Salm | Psalm 91
Cerddoriaeth | Music
Nicholas Johnson (ob.2019)

Here begins the twentieth verse of the twenty-third chapter of the Book of Exodus.

In those days: The Holy One said to Moses: I am going to send an angel in front of you, to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place that I have prepared. Be attentive to him and listen to his voice; do not rebel against him, for he will not pardon your transgression; for my name is in him. But if you listen attentively to his voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes. When my angel goes in front of you, and brings you to the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I blot them out, you shall not bow down to their gods, or worship them, or follow their practices, but you shall utterly demolish them and break their pillars in pieces. You shall worship the Holy One your God, and I will bless your bread and your water; and I will take sickness away from among you. No one shall miscarry or be barren in your land; I will fulfil the number of your days. I will send my terror in front of you, and will throw into confusion all the people against whom you shall come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. And I will send the pestilence in front of you, which shall drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from before you. I will not drive them out from before you in one year, or the land would become desolate and the wild animals would multiply against you. Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased and possess the land. I will set your borders from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the Euphrates; for I will hand over to you the inhabitants of the land, and you shall drive them out before you. You shall make no covenant with them and their gods. They shall not live in your land, or they will make you sin against me; for if you worship their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.

Here ends the First Lesson.

Exodus 23:20-33

Here begins the twenty-fourth chapter of the Book of Exodus.

In those days: The Holy One said to Moses, "Come up to the Living One, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship at a distance. Moses alone shall come near the Eternal One; but the others shall not come near, and the people shall not come up with him." Moses came and told the people all the words of the Holy One and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, "All the words that the Living One has spoken we will do." And Moses wrote down all the words of the Eternal One. He rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and set up twelve pillars, corresponding to the twelve tribes of Israel. He sent young men of the people of Israel, who offered burnt-offerings and sacrificed oxen as offerings of well-being to the Holy One. Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he dashed against the altar. Then he took the book of the covenant, and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, "All that the Living One has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient." Moses took the blood and dashed it on the people, and said, "See the blood of the covenant that the Eternal One has made with you in accordance with all these words." Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up, and they saw the God of Israel. Under his feet there was something like a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness. God did not lay his hand on the chief men of the people of Israel; also they beheld God, and they ate and drank.

Here ends the First Lesson.

Here begins the twelfth verse of the twenty-fourth chapter of the Book of Exodus.

In those days: The Holy One said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them." Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Living One settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Eternal One was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Here ends the First Lesson.

Exodus 24:12-18

Here begins the eighth verse of the sixth chapter of the Second Book of Kings.

In those days: When the king of Aram was at war with Israel, he took counsel with his officers. He said, "At such and such a place shall be my camp." But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, "Take care not to pass this place, because the Arameans are going down there." The king of Israel sent word to the place of which the man of God spoke. More than once or twice he warned such a place so that it was on the alert. The mind of the king of Aram was greatly perturbed because of this; he called his officers and said to them, "Now tell me who among us sides with the king of Israel?" Then one of his officers said, "No one, my lord king. It is Elisha, the prophet in Israel, who tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber." He said, "Go and find where he is; I will send and seize him." He was told, "He is in Dothan." So he sent horses and chariots there and a great army; they came by night, and surrounded the city. When an attendant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, an army with horses and chariots was all around the city. His servant said, "Alas, master! What shall we do?" He replied, "Do not be afraid, for there are more with us than there are with them." Then Elisha prayed: "O God, please open his eyes that he may see." So the Holy One opened the eyes of the servant, and he saw; the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

Here ends the First Lesson.

Magnificat

Codwn ar ein traed | We stand

 My soul doth magnify the Lord. And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden; for behold, from henceforth, all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations. He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away. He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Yma y mae yn dechrau ugeinfed bennod Actau'r Apostolion Sanctaidd.

Nawr: Pan beidiodd y cynnwrf, anfonodd Paul am y disgyblion, ac wedi eu hannog, ffarweliodd â hwy ac aeth ymaith ar ei ffordd i Facedonia. Wedi teithio trwy'r parthau hynny ac annog llawer ar y disgyblion yno, daeth i wlad Groeg. Treuliodd dri mis yno, a phan oedd ar hwyliau i Syria, gwnaeth yr Iwdeaid gynllwyn yn ei erbyn, a phenderfynodd ddychwelyd trwy Facedonia. Ei gyd-deithwyr oedd Sopater o Berea, mab Pyrrhus, y Thesaloniaid Aristarchus a Secundus, Gaius o Derbe, a Timotheus, a'r Asiaid Tychicus a Troffimus.

Yr oedd y rhain wedi mynd o'n blaen, ac yn aros amdanom yn Troas. Hwyliasom ninnau, wedi dyddiau'r Bara Croyw, o Philipi, a chyrraedd atynt yn Troas ymhen pum diwrnod; ac yno y buom am saith diwrnod. Ar ddydd cyntaf yr wythnos, daethom ynghyd i dorri bara. Dechreuodd Paul, a oedd i fynd ymaith drannoeth, eu hannerch, a daliodd i draethu hyd hanner nos. Yr oedd llawer o lampau yn yr oruwchystafell lle'r oeddem wedi ymgynnull, ac yr oedd dyn ifanc o'r enw Eutychus yn eistedd wrth y ffenestr. Yr oedd hwn yn mynd yn fwy a mwy cysglyd, wrth i Paul ddal i ymhelaethu. Pan drechwyd ef yn llwyr gan gwsg, syrthiodd o'r trydydd llawr, a chodwyd ef yn gorff marw. Ond aeth Paul i lawr; syrthiodd arno a'i gofleidio, a dywedodd, "Peidiwch â chynhyrfu; y mae bywyd ynddo." Yna aeth i fyny, a thorri'r bara a bwyta. Yna, wedi ymddiddan am amser hir hyd doriad dydd, aeth ymaith. Ond aethant â'r llanc adref yn fyw, ac fe'u calonogwyd yn anghyffredin.

Translation

Now: After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples; and after encouraging them and saying farewell, he left for Macedonia. When he had gone through those regions and had given the believers much encouragement, he came to Greece, where he stayed for three months. He was about to set sail for Syria when a plot was made against him by the Judeans, and so he decided to return through Macedonia. He was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Beroea, by Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, by Gaius from Derbe, and by Timothy, as well as by Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia. They went ahead and were waiting for us in Troas; but we sailed from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days we joined them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days. On the first day of the week, when we met to break bread, Paul was holding a discussion with them; since he intended to leave the next day, he continued speaking until midnight. There were many lamps in the room upstairs where we were meeting. A young man named Eutychus, who was sitting in the window, began to sink off into a deep sleep while Paul talked still longer. Overcome by sleep, he fell to the ground three floors below and was picked up dead. But Paul went down, and bending over him took him in his arms, and said, "Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him." Then Paul went upstairs, and after he had broken bread and eaten, he continued to converse with them until dawn; then he left. Meanwhile they had taken the boy away alive and were not a little comforted.

Translation

Now: We went ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul on board there; for he had made this arrangement, intending to go by land himself. When he met us in Assos, we took him on board and went to Mitylene. We sailed from there, and on the following day we arrived opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos, and the day after that we came to Miletus. For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he might not have to spend time in Asia; he was eager to be in Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost. From Miletus he sent a message to Ephesus, asking the elders of the church to meet him. When they came to him, he said to them: "You yourselves know how I lived among you the entire time from the first day that I set foot in Asia, serving the Holy One with all humility and with tears, enduring the trials that came to me through the plots of the Judeans. I did not shrink from doing anything helpful, proclaiming the message to you and teaching you publicly and from house to house, as I testified to both Jews and Greeks about repentance towards God and faith towards our Christ Jesus. And now, as a captive to the Spirit, I am on my way to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and persecutions are waiting for me. But I do not count my life of any value to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from Christ Jesus, to testify to the good news of God's grace."

Translation

Now: Paul said, "I know that none of you, among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom, will ever see my face again. Therefore I declare to you this day that I am not responsible for the blood of any of you, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose of God. Keep watch over yourselves and over all the flock, of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God that he obtained with the blood of his own Son. I know that after I have gone, savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. Some even from your own group will come distorting the truth in order to entice the disciples to follow them. Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to warn everyone with tears. And now I commend you to God and to the message of his grace, a message that is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all who are sanctified. I coveted no one's silver or gold or clothing. You know for yourselves that I worked with my own hands to support myself and my companions. In all this I have given you an example that by such work we must support the weak, remembering the words of Jesus, for he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'" When he had finished speaking, he knelt down with them all and prayed. There was much weeping among them all; they embraced Paul and kissed him, grieving especially because of what he had said, that they would not see him again. Then they brought him to the ship.

Translation

At that time: The disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" He called a child, whom he put among them, and said, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me. If any of you put a stumbling-block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea. Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven."

I believe in God
the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead,
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge
the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
✉ the Resurrection of the body,
and the Life everlasting.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Saviour, again to thy dear name we raise with one accord our parting hymn of praise.
Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
that in this house have called upon thy name.

Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the coming night;
turn thou for us its darkness into light;
from harm and danger keep thy children free,
for dark and light are both alike to thee.

Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life;
peace to thy Church from error and from strife;
peace to our land, the fruit of truth and love;
peace in each heart, thy Spirit from above:

Thy peace in life, the balm of every pain;
thy peace in death, the hope to rise again;
then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace.

sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope, thy softened light cheers the long watches of the night.

Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn,
our noontide is thy gracious dawn,
our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign;
all, save the clouds of sin, are thine.

Lord of all life, below, above,
