The Sunday Next Before Lent

Cadeirlan
Deiniol Sant
ym Mangor

Saint Deiniol's Cathedral
in Bangor

Welcome to Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in Bangor.

You stand now where Deiniol stood almost a millennium and a half ago.

Here, in the year 525, he gathered around him a community of faith, hope and love, and raised around it a hazel fence – the original bangor – for shelter and sanctuary.

Our prayer is that you,
too, will be embraced here by the same faith, hope and love that we proclaim and live by today.

At this Eucharist...

At this Eucharist we will meet Christ in bread and wine, which become for us his Body and his Blood.

1 As we gather, we will prepare ourselves to meet Christ by confessing our sins – the ways in which we have grieved God in our lives – and receive absolution, the knowledge of God's forgiveness.

2 We then listen to readings from the Bible, where we find guidance, challenge, comfort and good news from God. We respond by proclaiming our faith in the Holy Trinity and offering to God our prayer for all in need.

3 At the heart of our worship today, we will take bread and wine, we will ask for God's transfiguring blessing upon them, we break the bread, and – as the broken, mended Body of Christ that we ourselves are – we will make our Communion.

4 Our worship ends with the assurance of God's blessing, sustaining us as we depart.

No matter how long ago you last did so, you are welcome to make your Communion with us here today. If you would like to make your Communion for the first time, or to be Baptised, please speak to a member of the Cathedral team.

Faith, hope and love are here offered for everybody.

Worshipping with us today

This booklet contains everything said and sung during our worship today. You are invited to take the booklet away with you, to reflect in your own time on the holy words it contains. However, worship is not primarily something that we read or observe – it is an activity, in which we all participate, alongside those who are gathered with us and, we believe, alongside the whole company of heaven. Be sure, therefore, to look up; to notice colour, light, sound, movement and beauty; to raise up your voice; to take your full part; to be formed and transformed.

During our worship, we say and sing together the text in bold type. Translations into English are provided from Welsh and other languages. We may make a sign of the Cross at times when the words are marked with ✠. Other directions (rubrics) are offered in red type; if you find it more comfortable to sit rather than stand or kneel, please do so.

Accessibility

A hearing loop is in use – please set hearing aids to the T setting.

Large print copies of this booklet are available from the stewards.

If you have need of a gluten-free wafer (conforming to the canonical requirement for 20 parts gluten per million), please speak to a steward.

Lavatories are located at the east end of the Cathedral, through the door to the left of the Quire screen.

If we need to evacuate the Cathedral in an emergency, please remain seated and follow the directions of the stewards.

Children and young families

Activities and crafts take place during the Choral Holy Eucharist every Sunday in the Lady Chapel, for any children up to the age of 11. The crafts and activities are varied, with at least one relating to the theme of the Eucharist itself. This space will be staffed by responsible adults, and children over the age of 5 will be able to come and go freely. Children will remain the responsibility of their parents or guardians at all times. Children who are aged 4 and under should, in the first instance, be accompanied by a parent or guardian unless a prior arrangement with those on duty on the day has been made.

Gathering

Hymn

Alleluia, song of gladness, voice of joy that cannot die;
Alleluia is the anthem ever raised by choirs on high; in the house of God abiding thus they sing eternally.

Alleluia, thou resoundest,
true Jerusalem and free;
Alleluia, joyful mother,
bring us to thy jubilee;
here by Babylon's sad waters mourning exiles still are we.

Alleluia cannot always be our song while here below; Alleluia our transgressions make us for a while forgo;
for the solemn time is coming when our tears for sin shall flow.

In our hymns we pray with longing:
grant us, blessed Trinity,
at the last to keep glad Easter with the faithful saints on high;
there to thee forever singing Alleluia joyfully.

✠ In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

"Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for God."

Confession

As we gather to celebrate this Holy Eucharist to the glory of God, we prepare ourselves by confessing our sins, we who fail to see the outpouring of God's heart in creation, community and neighbour;

we who fail to follow Christ in our hearts
by prayer, devotion and charity;

we, though far off, whose hearts are brought near by word, sacrament and grace.

Heavenly Father,

We have sinned in thought, word and deed, and have failed to do what we ought to have done.

We are sorry and truly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ who died for us, forgive us all that is past and lead us in his way to walk as children of light.

Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, ✠ forgive you and set you free from sin,
and keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

Collect

Let us pray.

O God, who has taught us that all our doings without charity are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whosoever lives is counted dead before you; grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake.

Amen.

Word

Psalmody

How great is your goodness, O God, which you have laid up for those who fear you; which you have done in the sight of all for those who put their trust in you.

You hide them in the covert of your presence from those who slander them; you keep them in your shelter from the strife of tongues.

Blessed be God! For you have shown me the wonders of your love in a city under siege.

Yet I said in my alarm, "I have been cut off from the sight of your eyes." Nevertheless, you heard the sound of my entreaty when I cried out to you.

Love God, all you who worship God; God protects the faithful, but repays to the full those who act haughtily.

Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for God.

Psalm 31:19-24

Music

Samuel Matthews (1796-1832)

Reading

A reading from the Book of Genesis.

In those days: God said to Noah and to his sons with him, "I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth." God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

Hear the word of life to the world.

Thanks be to God.

Genesis 9:8-17

We stand, turning to face the Book of the Gospels in the Nave

Gospel

∇ Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia. ℞ Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

∇ I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. ℞ Alleluia. Alleluia.

Alleluia. ∇ Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me! ℞ Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Listen to the Holy Gospel according to ✠ Saint Luke.

Glory to you, O Christ.

At that time: Jesus took the twelve aside and said to them, "See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished. For he will be handed over to the Gentiles; and he will be mocked and insulted and spat upon. After they have flogged him, they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise again." But they understood nothing about all these things; in fact, what he said was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what was said. As he approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. When he heard a crowd going by, he asked what was happening. They told him, "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by." Then he shouted, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Those who were in front sternly ordered him to be quiet; but he shouted even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stood still and ordered the man to be brought to him; and when he came near, he asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" He said, "Sir, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has saved you." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, praised God.

This is the Gospel of our Saviour.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Luke 18:31-43

Sermon

Preparing for Lent: How to confess

The Canon Secundus & Bishop-Designate of Bardsey

At the end of the sermon, we stand

Creed

Together, let us affirm our faith.

I believe and trust in God the Father, who created all that is.

I believe and trust in his Son Jesus Christ, who redeemed humankind.

I believe and trust in his Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God.

I believe and trust in one God, ✠ Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Intercessions

With all our heart and with all our mind let us pray to God.

We sit or kneel

Let us pray to God, almighty and all holy, for the life and witness of the Church; for Andrew, our Bishop and Archbishop of Wales; for David, Bishop-Designate of Bardsey; and for ourselves at this time, preparing to observe a holy Lent.

Y God in your mercy,
R Hear our prayer.

Let us pray to God, almighty and all holy, for a blessing on our homes and communities; for the Cathedral Foodbank, and for all who give of their time and gifts to support its ministry.

Y God in your mercy,
R Hear our prayer.

Let us pray to God, almighty and all holy, for justice and peace upon earth; for the leaders of the nations; and for the suffering people of Ukraine, Gaza and Israel.

✠ God in your mercy,

✠ Hear our prayer.

Let us pray to God, almighty and all holy, for all who are vulnerable, in need, in pain or in anguish, and for all who minister to their needs. From our community, we pray specially for [...] .

✠ God in your mercy,

✠ Hear our prayer.

Let us pray to God, almighty and all holy, for those who have died. From among those known to us we pray for [...] who have died recently; and for [...] whose years mind falls at this time.

✠ Rest eternal grant unto them, O God.

✠ And let light perpetual shine upon them.

✠ ✠ May they rest in peace.

✠ And rise in glory.

Laying at this Altar-Table our petitions for ourselves and all whom we have commended to God, with Christ's companions – Mary the Mother of God, Deiniol, Cyngar, Cyril, Methodius, and all the Saints of Bardsey – we pray:

✠ Merciful Father,

✠ Accept these prayers for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

We stand to sing the hymn, during which the gifts of Bread and Wine are brought to the Altar-Table, and a Collection is taken

We are Censed during the hymn as a sign of purification and sanctification, and return the Thurifer's reverence

Hymn

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven, to his feet thy tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
who like me his praise should sing?
Praise him! Praise him! Praise him! Praise him!
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour to our fathers in distress;
praise him still the same for ever,
slow to chide and swift to bless:
Praise him! Praise him! Praise him! Praise him!
Glorious in his faithfulness.

Father-like, he tends and spares us,
well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hands he gently bears us,
rescues us from all our foes:
Praise him! Praise him! Praise him! Praise him!
Widely as his mercy flows.

Angels, help us to adore him;
ye behold him face to face;
sun and moon bow down before him,
dwellers all in time and space:
Praise him! Praise him! Praise him! Praise him!
Praise with us the God of grace.

We remain standing until we share the Peace

Offertory

We bring to this place the bread that sustains us.

It will become for us the bread of life.

We bring to this place the wine that mellows us.

It will become for us the lifeblood of the world.

Eucharistic Prayer

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, it is our duty and our joy at all times and in all places to give you thanks, holy Father, all-powerful and ever-living God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For he is our great high priest who has freed us from our sins and has made us a royal priesthood serving you, our God and Father.

And so with the hosts of angels and all the company of heaven we proclaim the glory of your name and join in their unending hymn of praise:

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High.

✠ Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Music

Short Communion Service, Adrian Batten (c.1591-c.1637)

We remain standing

All praise and thanks to you, true and living God, Creator of all things, Giver of life. You formed us in your own image; but we have marred that image and fall short of your glory. We give you thanks that you sent your Son to share our life; you gave him up to death that the world might be saved, and you raised him from the dead that we might live in him and he in us.

Sanctify with your Spirit this bread and wine, your gifts to us, that they may be for us the body and blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you: do this in remembrance of me. ✠

In the same way after supper he took the cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, Drink from this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins: do this as often as you drink it in remembrance of me. ✠

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come in glory.

As he has commanded us, Father, we remember Jesus Christ, your Son. Proclaiming his victorious death, rejoicing in his resurrection and waiting for him to come in glory we bring to you this bread, this cup. Accept our sacrifice of thanks and praise.

Restore and revive your people, renew us and all for whom we pray with your grace and heavenly ✠ blessing, and at the last receive us with all your saints into that unending joy promised by your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, for ever and ever.

✠ Amen.

We remain standing

Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, we boldly pray:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Peace

Your healing springs up in our hearts;
your vindication goes before us as your broken body made whole in peace.

The Peace of the Living God be always with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

We share a sign of Peace.

We share a sign of Peace; then we sit or kneel

Breaking

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us. O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us. O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: grant us thy peace.

Music

Short Communion Service, Adrian Batten (c.1591-c.1637)

Communion

✠ Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.
Happy are those who are called to his supper.

Saviour, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

We make our Communion, following the directions of the Stewards, receiving the Sacramental Host and, if we wish, the Precious Blood

Motet

O nata lux de lumine, Jesu redemptor saeculi, Dignare clemens supplicum Laudes precesque sumere. Qui carne quondam contegi Dignatus es pro perditis, Nos membra confer effici Tui beati corporis.

Translation

O Light born of Light, Jesus, redeemer of the world, with loving-kindness deign to receive suppliant praise and prayer. Thou who once deigned to be clothed in flesh for the sake of the lost, grant us to be members of thy blessed body.

Words

Music

Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)

After all have made their Communion, we stand to sing the hymn

Hymn

Guide me, O thou great Redeemer, pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
hold me with thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven,
feed me till I want no more,
feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain whence the healing stream doth flow;
let the fire and cloudy pillar lead me all my journey through:
strong deliverer, strong deliverer,
be thou still my strength and shield,
be thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan, bid my anxious fears subside;
death of death, and hell's destruction,
land me safe on Canaan's side:
songs of praises, songs of praises,
I will ever give to thee,
I will ever give to thee.

Departing

Grace and peace be with you.

And keep you in the love of Christ.

In all times of sorrow, in all times of joy, and at the day of judgement may God deliver you; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.

Let us go forth in peace.

In the Name of Christ. Amen.

Messiah

On the threshold of the holy season of Lent, join us at 6.00pm this Sunday evening for a devotional performance of Parts II & III of George Frideric Handel's Messiah.

Part II of Messiah tells the story of Christ's Passion and death, his Resurrection and Ascension, and the first spreading of the Gospel, culminating in the glorious proclamation of God's glory in the Hallelujah chorus. The mystical Part III is an exploration in song of the promise of eternal life: "I know that my Redeemer liveth," sings a soprano at its outset; "Worthy is the Lamb," acclaims the Chorus at its end. The music will be sung by the Cathedral Choir, with the soloists for Messiah's beautiful arias drawn from its ranks; and the performance will be conducted by our Director of Music, Joe Cooper.

Tickets, on the door, are £12 (£8 concession; £5 student concession).

Ash Wednesday

A bilingual Choral Holy Eucharist with the Imposition of Ashes will be offered at the Cathedral both at 12.30pm and also at 6.00pm this Wednesday, as we mark the beginning of Lent. Please prioritise your attendance at one of these celebrations in your diary, so that your observance of a holy Lent might begin reflectively, penitentially, sacramentally and beautifully.

Our Wednesday Lent study "You remember your covenant forever" | Discerning a path for Christian-Jewish relations

The relationship between Christianity and Judaism is profound, beautiful and complex. Our Lent Wednesday study will highlight how Christians, particularly, can enter into an exploration of this relationship.

Lent is a poignant time to reflect on the relationship between Christianity and Judaism, as Holy Week has often been a moment of increased hostility towards Judaism.

Our Lent Wednesday study will explore how Christians can deepen our understanding of Judaism, educate ourselves about Christian anti-Judaism, and move forward into a fruitful future of interfaith collaboration.

The sessions take place on 21 February, 6 March and 20 March at 6.00pm on Zoom, and will last an hour.

Other Wednesdays during Lent

Our Lent sermon series, focusing on the Nicene Creed, will be explored in special online session by Zoom at 6.00pm on 28 February. We're delighted that Dr Robin Ward, the Principal of Saint Stephen's House, Oxford, will be leading this session. The remaining Lent Wednesday evening, 13 March, will be dedicated to our new monthly Choral Eucharist of Requiem for the Departed, which will take place in the Chancel at 5.30pm, and at which Fauré's setting of the Requiem will be sung.

Thursday Music Recitals

Our Thursday Music Recitals – priceless music with free entry – take place every Thursday at 1.15pm. This week's recital is given by our own Samuel Hutchinson-Rogers on the piano.

Safeguarding

Safeguarding children and adults at risk is vital, and we are committed to fostering an environment where everyone is able to worship and participate in the life of Saint Deiniol's Cathedral in safety. If you have any concerns, please raise them immediately with a member of the Cathedral team.

Sustainability and permissions

We use 100% recycled, low carbon dioxide paper.

Many of our services are streamed online, and the recording made available thereafter on the Cathedral's YouTube channel. An official photographer may be on duty. Your attendance constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording or broadcast. If you do not wish a photograph of you or a child in your care to be used by the Cathedral, please speak to a member of the Cathedral team.
