Ein gweledigaeth Our vision

Ein conglfeini

Ymrwymwn i dri chonglfaen gweledigaethol y credwn ddylai nodweddu'n bywyd ar y cyd fel esgobaeth.

Our principles

We are committed to three visionary principles which we believe should characterise our common life as a diocese.

Addoli Duw

Yng ngeiriau un credo hynafol, ein galwedigaeth gyntaf yw gogoneddu Duw a'i fwynhau. Mae addoli yn cynnwys ymgynnull i foli, gweddïo, dysgu a chyfeillachu; ond mae hefyd yn cwmpasu y cyfan o'n bywyd – y byd cudd a phersonol yn ogystal â'r byd cyhoeddus (Mathew 6:6). Addoli Duw, felly, yw cynnig ein holl fywyd a chydabod bod popeth yn dod oddi wrth Dduw ac yn perthyn i Dduw.

Worshipping God

In the words of an ancient creed, our first call is to glorify and enjoy God. Worship includes gathering for praise, prayer, learning and affirmation, but encompasses all of life, and is as much about the unseen and personal sphere as the public (Matthew 6:6). To worship God therefore is to offer all of our life and to acknowledge that everything comes from God and belongs to God.

Tyfu'r Eglwys

Fe'n gelwir fel disgyblion Crist i rannu ein ffydd a'n cred yn Nuw fel y gall eraill eu profi. Nid rhywbeth bwriadol neu rywbeth sydd wedi ei gynllunio yw hyn. Fel disgyblion Iesu, rydym yn adnabod ein hangen parhaus am ras, a rhannwn hynny fel y byddai claf am rannu iachâd ag eraill sydd angen meddyg. Yn yr ystyr hwn, ymwelw twf yr Eglwys â chynnydd mewn gras yn ogystal â chynnydd mewn niferoedd (Effesiaid 4:13). ; ac eto, gan fod cariad Crist yn ein gorfodi, ni allwn beidio rhannu ein gobaith ag eraill.

Growing the Church

Disciples are called to share their faith and belief in God so that others may taste and see. This happens less by intention than by design because disciples are people who know their everlasting need of grace, and share as patients might do with others also in need of a physician. In this sense the growing of the Church is as much about an increase in grace as it is in numbers (Ephesians 4:13); and yet, because the love of Christ compels us, we cannot but seek to share our hope with others.

Caru'r byd

Mae'r Ysgrythur yn tystio i Dduw a garodd y byd gymaint nes iddo roi ei unig-anedig Fab (Ioan 3:16). Mae'r datganiad rhyfeddol hwn yn golygu bod Duw wedi ymrwymo ei hun yn llwyr i'w greadigaeth. Fe'n gelwir fel disgyblion Crist i garu'r byd fel y carodd ef – drwy weithredoedd anhunanol, a thrwy haelioni afradlon. Carwn y byd drwy arddangos arwyddion y groes a'r atgyfodiad mewn ffyrdd mesuradwy a chliir.

Loving the world

The Scriptures bear witness to the God who loved the world so much that he gave his only begotten Son (John 3:16). This extraordinary statement means that God committed his very being to the world he created and sustains. Disciples are people who also love the world by their selfless acts of giving and generous attitudes. To love the world is to show the signs of the cross and resurrection in measurable and clear ways.

Ein canolbwyntiau

Gwelwn yn glir bod rhai rhannau o'n bywyd ar y cyd yn mynnu sylw arbenning. Dyma'n canolbwyntiau.

Our priorities

We recognise that there are particular areas of our life as a diocese in which we need to invest particular energy. These have become our priorities.

Meithrin disgyblion

Er mwyn i'r Eglwys yng Nghymru fod yn effeithiol yn ei chenhadaeth, mae angen dynion a menywod sy'n barod i ateb galwad Crist i'w ddilyn drwy dyfu mewn ffydd a gwasanaeth. Golyga hyn y dylem barhau i fuddsoddi ein hegni wrth feithrin disgyblion newydd ac wrth ddyfnhau ysbrydolrwydd pob un ohonom – er mwyn i ni ddod i wybod mwy am stori ein ffydd, er mwyn i ni ganiatáu i'r stori honno lywio ein bywydau bob dydd, ac er mwyn i ni ddod yn fwy parod i rannu ei newydd da gydag eraill.

Nurturing disciples

For the Church in Wales to be effective in its mission for the future, it needs men and women who are prepared to answer Christ's call to follow him by growing in faith and in service. This demands that we continue to invest our energy in nurturing new disciples and in deepening the discipleship of each one of us – so that we come to know more profoundly the story of faith, so that we allow it to shape our daily lives, and so that we are more ready to share its good news with others.

Tyfu gweinidogaethau newydd

Ar draws yr esgobaeth, rydym eisoes yn profi galwedigaethau newydd sy'n dod i'r amlwg wrth i ni feithrin disgyblion a chanolbwyntio ar alwad Duw i wasanaethu. Byddwn yn canolbwyntio yn ystod y blynyddoedd sydd i ddod ar feithrin gweinidogaethau trwyddedig a chomisïynedig lleeg – gweinidogion bugeiliol, darllenwyr, arloeswyr, efengylwyr a gweinidogion teulu. Wrth i ni ffurfio Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth rydym hefyd yn datblygu a chefnogi gweinidogaethau Arweinwyr Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth, tra hefyd yn ffurfio a meithrin Timau Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth i arfer gweinidogaeth egnïol ar y cyd.

Growing new ministries

Across the diocese, we already see new vocations emerging from our emphasis on discipleship and call. We will focus over coming years on nurturing licensed and commissioned lay ministries – pastoral ministers, readers, pioneers, evangelists and family ministers. As we reshape our diocese into Ministry Areas we are also developing and resourcing the new ministry of Ministry Area Leadership, and forming and nurturing collaborative ministries in Ministry Area Teams.

Croesawu plant, pobl ifanc a theuluoedd

Mae'n Prosiect Plant, Pobl Ifanc a Theuluoedd esgobaethol yn anelu at alluogi gweinidogaethau newydd yn y maes hanfodol hwn o'n bywyd a'n chenhadaeth. Mae pedwar Galluogydd Gweinidogaeth Plant, Pobl Ifanc a Theuluoedd (CYFMEs) yn gweithio ledled yr esgobaeth i gefnogi Timau Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth i feithrin gallu yn y maes, ac i ddatblygu mentrau newydd.

Welcoming children, young people & families

Our diocesan Children, Young People and Families Project aims to enable new ministries in this critical area of our life and mission. Four Children, Young People & Families Ministry Enablers (CYFMEs) work across the diocese to support Ministry Area Teams to build capacity and to develop new initiatives.

Ein cynlluniau

Bydd ein Cylluniau Datblygu yn galluogi pob Ardal Weinidogaeth i ystyried sut y caiff ein conglfeini a'n canolbwyntiau eu gwreiddio ym mywyd yr Ardal Weinidogaeth.

Our plans

Three Development Plans allow each Ministry Area to reflect on how our principles and priorities are rooted within key aspects of the life of the Ministry Area.

Cynlluniau Datblygu Cenhadaeth

Bydd Cynllun Datblygu Cenhadaeth yr Ardal Weinidogaeth yn ystyried yr hyn a wnawn i hybu ein congffeini a'n canolbwyntiau o fewn pob Ardal Weinidogaeth. Drwy weithdai a digwyddiadau datblygu, caiff pob Ardal Weinidogaeth y cyfle i fyfyrir ar bob un o'r chwe chonglfaen a chanolbwynt, gan asesu lle rydym ni ar hyn o bryd, ac yna ddirnad lle rydym eisiau'i gyrraedd yn y dyfodol.

Mission Development Plans

Ministry Area Mission Development Plans will sketch out all that we do to advance our principles and priorities in each Ministry Area. Through workshops and development events, each Ministry Area will be encouraged and enabled to consider each of the six principles and priorities, assessing where we are at the moment, and discerning where we want to be in the future.

Cynlluniau Datblygu Eiddo

Rhaid i'n hadeiladau ein helpu i wireddu'n gweledigaeth esgobaethol. Mae Cynllun Datblygu Eiddo'r Ardal Weinidogaeth yn edrych tuag at 2030. Mae'n rhoi braslun cadarnhaol a chymhellol o'r eiddo a'r adeiladau o fewn yr Ardal a fydd yn ein galluogi i wireddu'r weledigaeth. Dyma gyfle i ystyried adeiladau, a'r holl asedau o ran eiddo a thir, a ddefnyddir ar hyn o bryd; a chyfle i fraslunio gweledigaeth o adeiladau cysegredig, adeiladau hyblyg, adeiladau cymunedol a thai staff a fyddai'n hybu cenhadaeth yr Ardal Weinidogaeth. Ceisiwn fod yn obeithiol ac yn realistig, gan anelu at ragoriaeth.

Property Development Plans

Our buildings need to help us deliver our diocesan vision. A Ministry Area's Property Development Plan looks ahead to 2030. It sketches out a positive and compelling property set-up for the Ministry Area – one that will help us deliver our shared vision. Here is an opportunity to map all of the buildings, premises, properties and land assets currently owned and used by the Church; and then to sketch a vision of sacred space, flexible space, community space and accommodation that would help to fulfil the mission of the Ministry Area. We aim to be hopeful; to be realistic; and to achieve excellence.

Cynlluniau Datblygu Cyllid

Mae Cynllun Datblygu Cyllid yr Ardal Weinidogaeth yn edrych tuag at 2020 a thu hwnt. Mae'n rhoi braslun o fframwaith ariannol egniol ar gyfer yr Ardal, a fydd eto'n ein galluogi i wireddu'n gweledigaeth. Dyma gyfle i ystyried cyllidebu a gweinyddu ariannol ar draws yr Ardal Weinidogaeth; rhoi rheolaidd, haelioni dydd i ddydd; codi arian, anrhegion mawr, a ffrydiau incwm newydd; a chynlluniau mentrus, pe na bai arian yn ein cyfyngu. Ceisiwn fod yn obeithiol; yn realistig; ac i weld cyllid yn gwasanaethu cenhadaeth yr Eglwys.

Finance Development Plans

A Ministry Area's Finance Development Plan looks ahead to 2020 and beyond. It sketches out a life-giving financial framework for the Ministry Area – again, one that will help us deliver our shared vision. This is an opportunity to consider budgeting and financial administration across the Ministry Area; regular, planned giving and day-to-day generosity; fundraising, major gifts, and new income streams; and bold, money-no-object plans. We aim to be hopeful; to be realistic; and to see finances as the servant of the mission of the Church.

Ein cynseiliau

Wrth i ni gamu mlaen yn obeithiol, gwnawn hynny â chynseiliau newydd sydd wedi eu gosod i gefnogi a chyfoethogi ein bywyd ar y cyd o fewn yr esgobaeth.

Our platforms

As we move forward with new energy and focus, we do so from new platforms designed to support and enhance our common life as a diocese.

Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth

Dros y blynyddoedd diwethaf, yr ydym wedi sefydlu bron y cyfan oll o'n 27 o Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth newydd, sydd wedi cymryd lle cynifer o blwyfi a bywiolaethau. Dyma lwyfan newydd ar gyfer cenhadaeth – llwyfan sydd wedi mynnu a galluogi patrwm newydd o weinidogaethu. Caiff pob Ardal Weinidogaeth ei harwain a'i gwasanaethu gan Arweinydd yr Ardal Weinidogaeth. Mae gweinidogaeth pob Ardal Weinidogaeth yn cael ei yrru gan Dîm yr Ardal Weinidogaeth. Ac, yn sgil cyfansoddi pob Ardal Weinidogaeth fel un plwyf, ceir un Cyngor yr Ardal Weinidogaeth ym mhob Ardal Weinidogaeth i oruchwyllo cenhadaeth ac adnoddau ledled yr Ardal.

Ministry Areas

Over recent years we've seen the bold establishment of almost all of our 27 new Ministry Areas, replacing parishes and benefices with a new platform for mission that has demanded and enabled a new pattern of ministry. Each Ministry Area is led and served by a Ministry Area Leader. The ministry of each Ministry Area is propelled by the Ministry Area Team. And, as each Ministry Area is constituted as a single parish, a single Ministry Area Council has oversight of mission and resources across the Ministry Area.

Synodau

Rydym wedi symud o ddeuddeg Deoniaeth Bro i bedair Synod. Mae'r Synodau'n rhoi cyfle i gynrychiolwyr o bob un o Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth y Synod i addoli Duw ar y cyd, i dderbyn a darparu cefnogaeth ac anogaeth, i rannu arfer da, i ymddiddan am brosesau esgobaethol yn ogystal ag anghenion y gymuned ehangach, ac i osod amcanion cenhadol Synod-eang.

Synods

We have moved from twelve Area Deaneries to four Synods. The Synods provide an opportunity for representatives from across the Synod's Ministry Areas to worship God together, to receive and provide mutual support and encouragement, to share good practice, to enter into dialogue about diocesan processes as well as the needs of the wider community, and to set Synod-wide missional aims.

Strwythurau esgobaethol

Rydym wedi ail-lunio'n pwyllgorau esgobaethol i ddarparu strwythur newydd sy'n symlach ac yn cyfateb yn well i'n gweledigaeth esgobaethol. Mae aelodaeth Cynhadledd yr Esgobaeth wedi ei ddiwygio er mwyn sicrhau, o ystyried ein cyd-destun newydd, y cawn gynrychiolaeth eang o'r esgobaeth gyfan. Mae Cyngor yr Esgobaeth ar ei newydd wedd yn gyfrifol am strategaeth ac adnoddau esobaethol, gan gwmpasu Bwrdd Cyllid yr Esgobaeth, Ymddiriedolaeth Esgobaeth Bangor a Phwyllgor Sefydlog Cynhadledd yr Esgobaeth. Mae'r Pwyllgorau Eiddo Esgobaethol bellach yn cwrrd ar y cyd i gynorthwyo Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth gyda'u hadeiladau a'u heiddo fel y'u hamlinellir yn y Cynlluniau Datlygu Eiddo. Bydd Pwyllgor Cyllid yn goruchwyllo ein cyllid esgobaethol ar ran Cyngor yr Esgobaeth ac yn cynorthwyo Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth gyda'u datblygiad ariannol. Mae Grŵp Cadfan yn dod ag Arweinwyr Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth ynghyd â'r Esgob a chydweithwyr eraill i addoli ac ymddiddan ar y cyd.

Diocesan structures

We have reshaped our diocesan committees to provide a new structure that is more streamlined and more attuned to our diocesan vision. The membership of the Diocesan Conference has been reformed to ensure that within the changing landscape of diocesan life it continues to include broad representation from across the diocese. A new Diocesan Council takes responsibility for strategy and resources, encompassing the Diocesan Board of Finance, the Bangor Diocesan Trust and the Diocesan Conference Standing Committee. The various diocesan Property Committees now meet together, taking a holistic view of Ministry Area premises and property as established in the Property Development Plans. A Finance Committee is being established which will support the financial oversight functions of the Diocesan Council, and assist Ministry Areas with their financial development. The Cadfan Group regularly brings together Ministry Area Leaders to worship and confer with the Bishop and other colleagues.

Jon also feels passionate about issues facing rural populations and serves as chaplain alongside farmers at Welshpool livestock market.

Jon is a native of Cardiganshire, and was raised in the village of Llanarth. He studied Theology at Bangor University before working at a Christian outdoor activity centre in Scotland. During this time he came into contact with Church Army, and was selected to train as one of their evangelists. He spent five years as a Fresh Expressions evangelist in Churchstoke in the Welsh Marches before moving to work with the Diocese of Bangor, first as a CYFME and now as a pioneer minister.

To the light

The 2017 Clergy Conference explored the meaning of discipleship and the formation of disciples in a changing context, considering what discipleship looks like for those on the fringes of traditional church; for individuals who would consider themselves spiritual but not religious; for groups interested in social justice; and for those who would consider themselves not spiritual and not religious. At this Synod meeting, there will be a chance to hear more about what was discovered at the conference, and to reflect on what it might mean for us in our Ministry Areas and churches. The meeting will be led by our diocesan Director of Discipleship & Vocations, Dominic McClean.

To the light

The 2017 Clergy Conference explored the meaning of discipleship and the formation of disciples in a changing context, considering what discipleship looks like for those on the fringes of traditional church; for individuals who would consider themselves spiritual but not religious; for groups interested in social justice; and for those who would consider themselves not spiritual and not religious. At this Synod meeting, there will be a chance to hear more about what was discovered at the conference, and to reflect on what it might mean for us in our Ministry Areas and churches. The meeting will be led by our diocesan Director of Discipleship & Vocations, Dominic McClean.

Twelve

Twelve is an innovative initiative pioneered by the Dioceses of Llandaff, Monmouth and Swansea & Brecon. It is a series of short films that allows us to listen to twelve people tell their story. We are given the opportunity to see the world through their eyes and to listen to their experience of God, the Church and their community. We also hear each person highlight a question that has remained with them throughout their life. At this Synod meeting, there will be a chance to hear more about Twelve; to reflect what it means to tell our own story of God, Church and community; and to consider the ways in which listening to stories and asking enduring questions can help us to share our faith and to help others along their journey of Christian encounter. The meeting will be led by Charlie Shepherd, the St Padarn Institute's Tutor in Monmouth.

Gwnewch hyn er cof amdanaf: Myfyrio ar ddathlu'r Cymun

Mae'n haddoliad yn aml iawn yn ein hymgyfnnull o gwmpas bwrdd yr allor yn y gwasanaeth yr ydym yn ei alw'n Eucharist neu'n Gymun Bendigaid neu'n Swper yr Arglwydd. Mae'r bregeth yn parhau i ddarparu cyfle allweddol i gyhoeddi'r newyddion da, addysgu'r ffydd, arwain cymuned, a rhannu geiriau cysurus a heriol Duw. Bydd y digwyddiad hwn yn archwilio'r defnydd o dechnegau creadigol a thechnoleg fodern i fireinio'r hyn y gellir ei gynnig yn ystod y bregeth, gan edrych ar y ffyrdd y gall arddulliau pregethu cyfoes ennyn diddordeb gan gynulleidfa nad ydi'n clywed y newyddion da fel y'i bregethir ar hyn o bryd.

Do this in remembrance of me: Reflecting on celebrating the Eucharist

Our worship is very often gathered around the altar-table in the service we call the Eucharist or Holy Communion or the Lord's Supper. Like the very first Christians, we worship by coming together to break bread. This event offers an opportunity to reflect anew on the task and privilege of presiding at the Eucharist, exploring the related themes of the shape of the liturgy and the ordering of the liturgical space. Although the focus will be on priestly Eucharistic presidency, others who assist with worship are most welcome to attend.

This event will be led by Simon Jones. Simon is Chaplain of Merton College, Oxford, and an honorary canon of Christ Church, Oxford, and Chichester Cathedral. A distinguished liturgist, he serves on the Church of England Liturgical Commission, teaches liturgy at St Stephen's House, Oxford and has published several Alcuin liturgy guides.

Creativity in preaching and teaching

The sermon continues to provide a key space for proclaiming the good news, teaching the faith, guiding a community, and sharing God's words of comfort and challenge. This event will explore the use of creative techniques and modern technology to enhance what can be offered during the 'sermon slot', looking at the ways in which more contemporary sermon styles might allow us to be heard by those who aren't hearing the good news proclaimed today.

Caiff y digwyddiad ei arwain gan Richard Hainsworth. Richard yw Ficer plwyf Llanean yn Esgobaeth Llanellwyl, ac ef yw Tiwtor Athrofa Padarn Sant yn Llanellwyl. Fe'i haddysgwyd yng Ngholeg Iesu, Caergrawnt a Choleg Sant Mihangel, Llandaf, gan dderbyn ei ddoethuriaeth yn 2013 am ei astudiaeth o waith yr eco-feminist ydd Americanaidd Sallie McFague.

Planning and leading bilingual worship

This is an event to boost our confidence as we think about leading worship bilingually, and to help us to plan effective and energising bilingual services. There will be an opportunity to consider the background factors that colour the experience of worship in the bilingual context of the Church in Wales. How do we use language within the Church's liturgy to promote hospitality and to enable us to encounter the living God? We will also explore ideas, guidelines and resources that will help us to plan and lead bilingual services.

This event will be led by Ainsley Griffiths. Educated at Manchester and Oxford, Ainsley began his ordained ministry in the Diocese of Bangor, serving in the city of Bangor and in Pwllheli. He is currently Chaplain at the University of Wales Trinity St David, and Continuing Ministerial Development Officer for the Diocese of St Davids.

Gweinidogaethau gyda pobl sy'n fyddar neu'n drwm eu clyw

Bydd y digwyddiad hwn yn ein helpu ni i wella'r ffyrdd yr ydym yn gwasanaethu pobl sy'n fyddar neu'n drwm eu clyw yn ein Hardaloedd Gweinidogaeth. Bydd cyfle i ddeall anghenion nodedig y rhai sy'n profi colled clyw ac i archwilio'r pethau hynny sy'n helpu i wneud eglwys yn groesawgar i bobl sy'n fyddar neu'n drwm eu clyw. Ministry with people who are deaf and hard of hearing

This event will help us improve the ways in which we serve people who are deaf and hard of hearing in our Ministry Areas. There will be an opportunity to understand the distinctive needs of those who experience hearing loss and to explore those things that help to make a church welcoming for people who are deaf and hard of hearing. We will also explore ways in which we can nurture stronger connections with the deaf and hard of hearing communities.

Make melody to God: Enhancing the use of music in worship

This event will help us explore and enhance the use of music, voices and instruments in worship. We will learn about the best ways in which to recruit and nurture new musicians in our churches and Ministry Areas, the practicalities of blending the modern and traditional in worship, techniques for enabling music to lend its support to each stage of a church service, and ways of extending the range of worship-styles we offer. There will also be an opportunity to sing and play as we discover new repertoire and techniques together. This event builds on the 2016 Lift up your voice workshop, but it is not necessary to have attended the 2016 workshop to benefit from this event.

Caiff y digwyddiad ei arwain gan Miles Quick o Ysgol Frenhinol Cerddoriaeth yr Eglwys. Canfod Eglwys y Goedwig

Mae Eglwys y Goedwig yn fynegiad eglwysig newydd sydd wedi'i wreiddio yn y dyddiau a fu, pan mai yn yr awyr agored y dethlid digwyddiadau cysegredig – ond mae hefyd yn manteisio ar ymchwil gyfoes sy'n nodi gerth treulio amser ym myd natur. Nid eglwys arferol wedi ei phlannu yn yr awyr agored yw Eglwys y Goedwig: yn hytrach mae'n ceisio cyd-ganu â'r greadigaeth. Ac nid grŵp cymdeithasol ydyw sy'n gwneud gweithgaredd allanol: ei nod yw helpu Cristnogion i ddysgu, addoli, myfyrio a chyd-weddio gyda'r coed, ger y ffynnon, neu ar lan y môr.

Bydd 'Sut i arwain Eglwys y Goedwig' yn archwilio adnoddau tymhorol ar gyfer Eglwys y Goedwig, ynghyd ag enghreifftiau ymarferol o weithgareddau. Bydd y digwyddiad un-dydd hwn hefyd yn edrych ar ddewis lleoliadau a gweithgareddau addas, yn ogystal ag ystyried rhinweddau cymuno â Duw yn yr awyr agored.

Exploring Forest Church

Forest Church is a fresh expression of Church drawing on much older traditions when sacred places and practices were outside – but it is also drawing on contemporary research that highlights the benefits of spending time with nature in wild places. Forest Church isn't just normal church happening outside: instead it attempts to participate with creation. And it isn't just a fellowship group doing an outside activity: its aim is to help Christians learn, worship, meditate and pray with the trees, at the spring, or along the shore.

'How to run Forest Church' will explore seasonal resources for Forest Church, along with practical examples of activities. This day event will also look at choosing locations and appropriate activities, as well as reflecting on why we should go outside and connect with nature for our worship and well-being.

For those wanting to enter deeper into Forest Church, 'A weekend of Forest Church' will add to the 'How to run Forest Church' a three-day exploration of what it means to be connected to the whole of nature. So, to the practical and theoretical underpinnings of the 'How to run Forest Church' event will be added time to connect intentionally and playfully with the spirit of God that is present within all things, that is the Eternal Christ, first born of all creation, 'the first thought in the mind of God.'

Caiff y digwyddiad ei arwain gan Stuart Elliott, Arweinydd Ardal Weinidogaeth Bro Gwydyr a Bruce Stanley. Mae Bruce yn byw gyda'i deulu ymhlith y bryniau a'r coedwigoedd ger Llanidloes. Mae'n gyfrannwr rheolaidd i'r Wyl Greenbelt, ac er yw awdur A Field Guide to Forest Church a golygydd, gyda Steve Hollinghurst, Earthed: Christian Perspectives on Nature Connection.

Praying for growing churches
Learning about growing churches
Committing to growing the Church

Spring Forward is a new and exciting addition to our annual diocesan calendar. Taking place at the Centre for Alternative Technology's innovative new conference facilities in Machynlleth, this is a day for 100 people from across the diocese to gather together to celebrate the importance of 'Growing the Church' as one of our key diocesan principles, to share ideas and examples of good practice, to gain new insights and skills, to be inspired, and to commend our endeavours and hopes for a growing Church to God in prayer and worship.

We will hear keynote contributions from colleagues elsewhere in Wales, from the Church of England and from mission agencies, and we'll explore initiatives, methods and case studies in more detail in workshops. We'll learn more about nurturing disciples, pioneering ministries and evangelism, and we'll reflect on how to measure our progress towards increased activity and engagement and towards a deeper grace and hope.

Our 2018 Diocesan Conference in Bangor on 6 October 2018 will form a second leg of this event, allowing us to gather later in the year to reflect on progress and to continue to pray as a diocese for a growing Church and for more people who know and adore the heart of God.

The 2018 Bishop's Study Days are a new and exciting addition to our annual diocesan calendar. The four separate days are spread throughout the year, and hosted at Tŷ Deiniol in the Cathedral Close. They offer an opportunity to approach a range of theological topics, in the company of experts, and through presentations, questions and conversation.

The four 2018 days are diverse, but united by a common theme of being attentive to a broad range of voices within the Body of Christ – especially those ordinary or distinctive voices that have been too easily silenced or pushed to the margins in the past.

There will be much here to enrich and sustain the ministry of those who preach and teach in the diocese. But the Bishop's Study Days are also open to anybody who wants to know more about Scripture, doctrine, ethics and Church history so that their discipleship may be deepened and their knowledge and love of God increased. Sign up for all four, or for any individual days that take your interest.

Beth oedd yn unigryw a choeth am y lleoedd hynny a ddaeth yn safleoedd pererindod i'r Cristnogion cynharaf yn ein hesgobaeth? A beth sy'n parhau i denu cymaint o bobl i'r un lleoedd hynny hyd heddiw? Bydd y diwrnod hwn yn seiliedig ar ymchwil bresennol Andrew Jones i wreiddiau hanesyddol pererindota a'i apêl yn ein dyddiau ni. Bydd yn dwyn ynghyd astudiaethau o leoedd penodol, cyfnod penodol yn ein hanes, ystyriaethau cyfoes am ffydd, a phrofiadau pererinion cyfoes. Byddwn yn archwilio'r Eglwys Brydeinig yn y cyfnod rhwng 400 a 700, dealliaidau Cristnogol o 'le', a'r ffyrdd y mae'r cynhwysion yma'n uno yn ysbrydolrwydd cyffredin y pererin.

Gwrando'n astud ar leisiau tawel

Bydd y diwrnod hwn yn ein hannog i roi sylw i'r ffyrdd y gall ein cymunedau eglwysig ddod yn leoedd sy'n eithrio a gwahardd, ac i fyfyrio ar brofiadau a dealltwriaeth Gristnogol y rhai sydd yn aml yn cael eu gosod ar ymylon bywyd yr Eglwys a'r meddwl Cristnogol. Bydd Janet Fletcher yn edrych ar yr hyn y mae'n ei olygu i fod yn sengl yn ein cymdeithas gyfoes ac o fewn yr Eglwys. Ai rhywbeth israddol ydyw? A oes diwinyddiaeth ac ysbrydolrwydd i'r bywyd sengl? Sut allwn ni ddathlu bod yn sengl? Mae gyrfya academaidd Wayne Morris rhoi cyfle iddo astudio anabledd a chydaddoldeb ym mywyd cymunedau Cristnogol. Beth yw'r dulliau unigryw o ymddiddan diwinyddol y mae Cristnogion ag anableddau wedi'u datblygu? Sut y gallai'r Eglwys ddod yn gymuned sy'n trawsnewid gwaharddiad ac yn gwneud cyfraniad o'i chyfoeth ei hun i'r dasg o greu byd mwy cyfiawn.

Pilgrimage, history, place, the present and the ordinary

What was unique and enriching about those places that became sites of pilgrimage for the earliest Christians in our diocese? And what is it that continues to draw so many people to those same places today? This day will be based on Andrew Jones's current research into the historical roots and the present-day appeal of pilgrimage. It will bring together reflections on particular places, a specific period in history, contemporary issues of faith, and the experiences of modern-day pilgrims. We will explore the British Church in the period between 400 and 700, Christian understandings of 'place', and the ways that these threads are woven into each pilgrim's vocation.

Andrew Jones is Archdeacon of Meirionnydd and Ministry Area Leader of Bro Enlli. He has written several articles and books, including Every Pilgrim's Guide to Celtic Britain and Ireland (2002 and 2009), Pilgrimage: The Journey to Remembering our Story (2011), and Mary: A Gospel Witness to Transfiguration and Liberation (2014). He is currently working on a book due to be published by the Dutch theological publisher, Brill, on the history of the early British Church.

Listening to the voices we rarely hear

This day will encourage us to pay attention to the ways in which our church communities can become exclusive places, and to reflect on the experiences and Christian understandings of those who are often placed at the margins of Church life and Christian thinking. Janet Fletcher will explore what it means to be single within our contemporary society and within the Church. Is being single 'looked down' on? Is there a theology and spirituality of singleness? How can we celebrate being single? Wayne Morris's academic career has drawn him to study the disability and equality in the life of Christian communities. What are the unique approaches to doing theology that Christians with disabilities have developed? How might the Church become a community that transforms exclusion and makes a contribution from its own richness to the task of creating a more just world?

Wayne Morris yw Pennaeth Adran Ddiwinyddiaeth ac Astudiaethau Crefyddol Prifysgol Caer a Deon Cyswllt y Dyniaethau yno. Golwg o'r newydd ar yr Hen Destament

Rydym wedi bod yn arbenigwyr ers tro ar archwilio'r byd y tu ôl i lyfrau'r Hen Destament, gan ofyn cwestiynau hanesyddol am y byd a gynhyrchoedd y testun. Rydym hefyd yn gyfarwydd â'r dasg o ymwneud â thestun yr Hen Destament fel y mae ar y ddalen, gan ymgysylltu â'r cymeriadau, a'r stori a'r manylion â difrifoldeb dychmygus. Bydd y diwrnod hwn yn ein hannog i ystyried y byd sydd o flaen y testun – y ffyrdd yr ydym ni fel darllenwyr yn ffurfio'r testun hyd yn oed wrth i ni gael ein ffurfio ganddo; y ffyrdd y byddwn ni'n cydweithio â'r testun i greu ystyr. Sut mae gwahanol safbwyntiau a phrofiadau yn amlygu gwahanol ystyron? Sut mae profiad fy nghymydog o Dduw a'r byd yn ei achosi i weld pethau'n yr Hen Destament sy'n gudd neu'n wrthyn i mi? Beth allwn ni ei ddsygu o'r ffyrdd y mae cymunedau sy'n gwbl wahanol i ni yn darllen ac yn deall yr un Hen Destament?

The Old Testament through new eyes

We have long been experts at exploring the world behind the books of the Old Testament, asking historical questions about the world that gave rise to the text. We are also accomplished at relating to the text of the Old Testament as it appears on the page, engaging with its characters, its plot and its details with imaginative seriousness. This day will encourage us to interrogate the world in front of the text – the ways in which we as readers shape the text even as we are shaped by it, working together to make meaning. How do different perspectives and experiences shine a light on different meanings? How does my neighbour's experience of God and the world make their reading of the Old Testament different to mine? What can we learn from the ways in which communities that are utterly different from our own read and understand the same Old Testament?

Astudiodd Gareth Lloyd Jones yn Nulyn, Caergrawnt, Îâl a Llundain, a bu'n dysgu yn Chicago, Rhydychen a Cincinnati, gan gyfuno ei waith academaidd gyda'i weinidogaeth offeiriol. Ymddeolodd fel Athro a Phennaeth Ysgol Diwinyddiaeth ac Astudiaethau Crefyddol Prifysgol Bangor yn 2003, ac fel Canon Ganghellor Cadeirlan Bangor yn 2008, ond mae'n parhau â'i weinidogaethu o bregethu ac addysgu yn yr esgobaeth a thu hwnt.

Charlie Shepherd yw Twitor Athrofa Padarn Sant yn Mynwy. Mae wedi darlithio yng Ngogledd America, Gorllewin Affrica a Durham, ac mae ganddo doethuriaeth yn Astudiaethau'r Hen Destament. Cyhoeddwyd ei lyfr cyntaf, Theological Interpretation and Isaiah 53: A Critical Comparison of Bernhard Duhm, Brevard Childs and Alec Motyer, yn 2015. Law yn llaw ag ymchwil yr Hen Destament, mae Charlie yn parhau i ymddiddori yn y cyswllt rhwng y bywyd Cristnogol a thueddiadau diwylliannol ar ymylon cymdeithas gyfoes.

Wales, identity and religion

As we yearn for a transformation in the life of the Church in Wales, how will history, memory, culture and national identity shape the future of the Church? This day will take us on a journey through the Christian history of Wales, exploring the powerful ways in which Wales's experience of Christianity through 'church' and 'chapel' have shaped Welsh culture and social identity. We will also explore the ways in which our distinctive Welsh religious history influences our national experience of secularism. We will engage with the stories behind the statistics as well as reflect on our own experience in order to gain a deeper understanding of the cultures – ecclesiastical and societal – within which we serve.

Manon Ceridwen James is originally from Nefyn, and is the Director of Ministry for St Asaph Diocese. She completed a PhD in Practical Theology at Birmingham University in 2015 and a book based on this research entitled Women, Identity and Religion in Wales: Theology, Poetry, Story will be published by University of Wales Press in March 2018.

Ar ôl gadael ysgol, aeth i'r Brifysgol yn Exeter lle'r astudiodd Bolisi a Gweinyddu Cymdeithasol. Wedi hynny, bu'n gweithio am flwyddyn fel cynorthwy-ydd mewn cartref i blant 'difreintiedig a throseddgar'. Oddi yno aeth i goleg ddiwinyddol yng Nghaergrawnt i hyfforddi ar gyfer y weinidogaeth. Licensed ministry Retreat

This annual Retreat for clergy, Readers and others exercising licensed ministry in the diocese offers an opportunity to step away from the busy-ness of ministry to pray, to be guided, and to listen to God.

This year's Retreat will be led by Alan Jevons.

Brought up in Bournemouth, Alan spent the first 25 years of his life on the south coast of England. After school he went to University at Exeter where he read Social Policy and Administration. After this he worked for a year as an assistant housefather in a home for 'deprived and delinquent' children. From here he went to theological college at Cambridge to train for ministry. The highlight of this was 'escaping' for six months to the ecumenical institute at Geneva. He came down to earth with two curacies, one on the south side of Dudley and the other in the north of Manchester, both urban priority areas. This was followed by a move down to the fleshpots of Hereford, where the rich red soil of the Marches has clung ever since. An appointment in the south of Hereford was followed by a rural appointment between Hereford and Ross-on-Wye, and a further appointment near Ludlow. The family moved over the border into Wales in 2007. He is at present vicar at Llangorse, an area of great beauty, with a lake and hills and plenty of sheep, and Archdeacon of Brecon. Alan has had a continuing interest in social responsibility issues through his ministry and has been excited by being able to pick up the issues again in his present appointment. He believes that the mission of the Church is not served by concentration on itself and self-survival but by looking outwards and being involved in issues of community and justice. On days off Alan enjoys hill walking, photography, and taking computers apart.

Cynhadledd Glerigol 2018 Goruchwylwyr dros Deulu Duw a Llysgenhadon Crist

Cyn i'r esgobion draddodi dwylo ar esgob newydd yn ystod eu cysegrïad, mae'r Archesgob yn gweddïo dros weinidogaeth un a fydd yn "oruchwyllydd dros Deulu Duw ac y lysgennad i Grist."

Mae delweddau'r goruchwyllydd a'r llysgennad wedi'u gwreiddio yn yr Efyngylau a'r Epistolau, ond nid ydynt ymhlith y delweddau cyfarwydd y mae'r Eglwys wedi eu defnyddio wrth ddisgrifio gweinidogaeth esgobion, heb sôn am gyfanrwydd y weinidogaeth ordeiniedig. Tybed a ydynt felly'n cynnig ffordd newydd i ni ddisgrifio'r weinidogaeth ordeiniedig, a chymryd stoc o newidiadau sylweddol yn y praxis ordeiniedig a welsom dros y blynyddoedd diwethaf? Wrth rannu yng ngweinidogaeth esgobol yr Esgob, sut beth yw hi heddiw i ddiaconiaid ac offeiriaid weinidogaethu fel "goruchwylwyr dros deulu Duw, a llysgenhadon Crist" yn ein cyd-destun cyfoes ni? Byddwn yn myfyrio ar yr her o arfer arweinyddiaeth sacramentaidd oddi mewn i gymuned y bedyddedig, gan gynnig cyfarwyddyd ac addysg, ond heb fod yn rhyfygus; ar reoli pethwbreth o roddion, adnoddau a disgwiliadau ledled pethwbreth o ddisgyblaethau a chyd-destunau; ar hybu diwygiad ym mywyd yr Eglwys, gan for yn wydn wrth i newid a'i holl ansefydlogrwydd fyrlymu o'u cwmpas.

Bydd Cynhadledd Glerigol 2018 yn amser i fyfyrïo ar arweinyddiaeth ordeiniedig – ar ddisgrifiadau traddodiadol yr Ordinal, ar gynseiliau beiblaidd a hanesyddol, ac ar realiti ein gweinidogaeth heddiw fel goruchwylwyr dros deulu Duw a llysgenhadon Crist yn Esgobaeth Bangor.

Cynhelir y Gynhadledd Glerigol yng Ngholeg Imperial, Llundain. Bydd campws y coleg yn Ne Kensington yn darparu ar ein cyfer ni a'n siaradwyr yr holl adnoddau sydd eu hangen arnom i weithio, addoli, gorffwys ac ymddiddan. Fe'n hanogir i drefnu ein dyddiaduron a'n rotas i'n galluogi i deithio gyda'n gilydd i Lundain ar brynhawn Sul 16 Medi 2018. Byddwn yn dechrau'n brydlon ben bore dydd Llun 17 Medi. Clergy Conference 2018 Stewards over God's Household and Ambassadors for Christ

Immediately before the bishops lay hands on a new bishop at their consecration, the Archbishop prays for the new ministry of "a steward over God's household and an ambassador for Christ."

The images of the steward and the ambassador are rooted in the Gospels and the Epistles, yet they are not among the familiar images that the Church has used when describing the ministry of bishops, let alone of all the ordained. Might they therefore offer us a fresh way of describing ordained ministry, and of taking stock of significant changes to the praxis of ordained ministry over recent years? What does it now mean for deacons and priests, sharing in the Bishop's episcopal ministry, to be "stewards over God's household and ambassadors for Christ" in our contemporary context. We will reflect on the challenges of exercising sacramental leadership of the community of the baptised, guiding and teaching without being superior; of managing a mixture of gifts, resources and expectations across manifold disciplines and contexts; of being agents of reform in the life of the Church, resilient as change and its challenges whirl all around.

The 2018 Clergy Conference will be a time to reflect on ordained leadership – on the ageless descriptions in the Ordinal, on biblical and historical precedents, and on the reality of our ministry today as stewards over God's household and ambassadors for Christ in the Diocese of Bangor.

The Clergy Conference will take place at Imperial College, London. The college's campus in South Kensington will provide us and our speakers with all the resources we need for work, worship, rest and fellowship. We are encouraged to arrange our diaries and rotas to enable us to travel together to London on the afternoon of Sunday 16 September. We will make a prompt start on the morning of Monday 17 September. The Conference will end after lunch on Wednesday 19 September, enabling us to travel home in the afternoon.

Cyfathrebu gorfoledd a gogoniant

Sut mae'r Beibl yn ein hannog i ryngweithio o fewn yr eglwys ac allan i'n cymunedau? Ym mhle, fel yr Eglwys a Christnogion, yr ydym yn bresennol ac yn weladwy, a pha argraff mae pobl yn ei gael o Dduw pan ddont o hyd i ni? Beth allwn ni ei wneud i wella'r ffyrdd yr ydym yn cyfathrebu amdanom ni ein hunain, yr Eglwys a Christ? Bydd hwn yn ddiwrnod ymarferol yn cymysgu diwinyddiaeth, awgrymiadau a hyfforddiant, pan gawn rannu syniadau newydd a cheisio mewnwleidiadau newydd ynghylch yr hyn y mae cyfathrebu da yn olygu i eglwys ac Ardal Weinidogaethyn Esgobaeth Bangor.

Communicating good news and glory

How does the Bible encourage us to interact within the church and out into our communities? Where, as the Church and as Christians, are we present and visible, and what impression do people get of God from encountering us? What can we do to improve the ways in which we communicate about ourselves, the Church and Christ? This will be a practical day mixing theology, tips and training, when we will be able to share fresh ideas and gain new insight about what good communication looks for a church and Ministry Area in the Diocese of Bangor.

Caiff y digwyddiad ei arwain gan aelodau o Dîm Deiniol, gyda Neill Harvey-Smith. Yn ddiweddar, bu Neill yn gwasanaethu Eglwys Loegr fel Pennaeth y Cyfryngau a chyn hynny bu'n Gyfarwyddwr Cyfathrebu Esgobaeth Lichfield. Mae'n bencampwr cenedlaethol a rhyngwladol mewn dadleua, mae wedi dysgu a hyfforddi ledled y byd. Mae'n helpu eglwysi, elusennau a chwmnïau i ddatblygu eu medrau cyfathrebu.

PWY? Mae croeso i bawb. Bydd y digwyddiad hwn o ddiddordeb arbennig i'r rheiny sydd eisioes yn rhan o weithgareddau cyfarthrebu, ac i glerigion ac aelodau o Gyngorau Ardaloedd Gweinidogaeth
